KALEIDOSCOPE '76

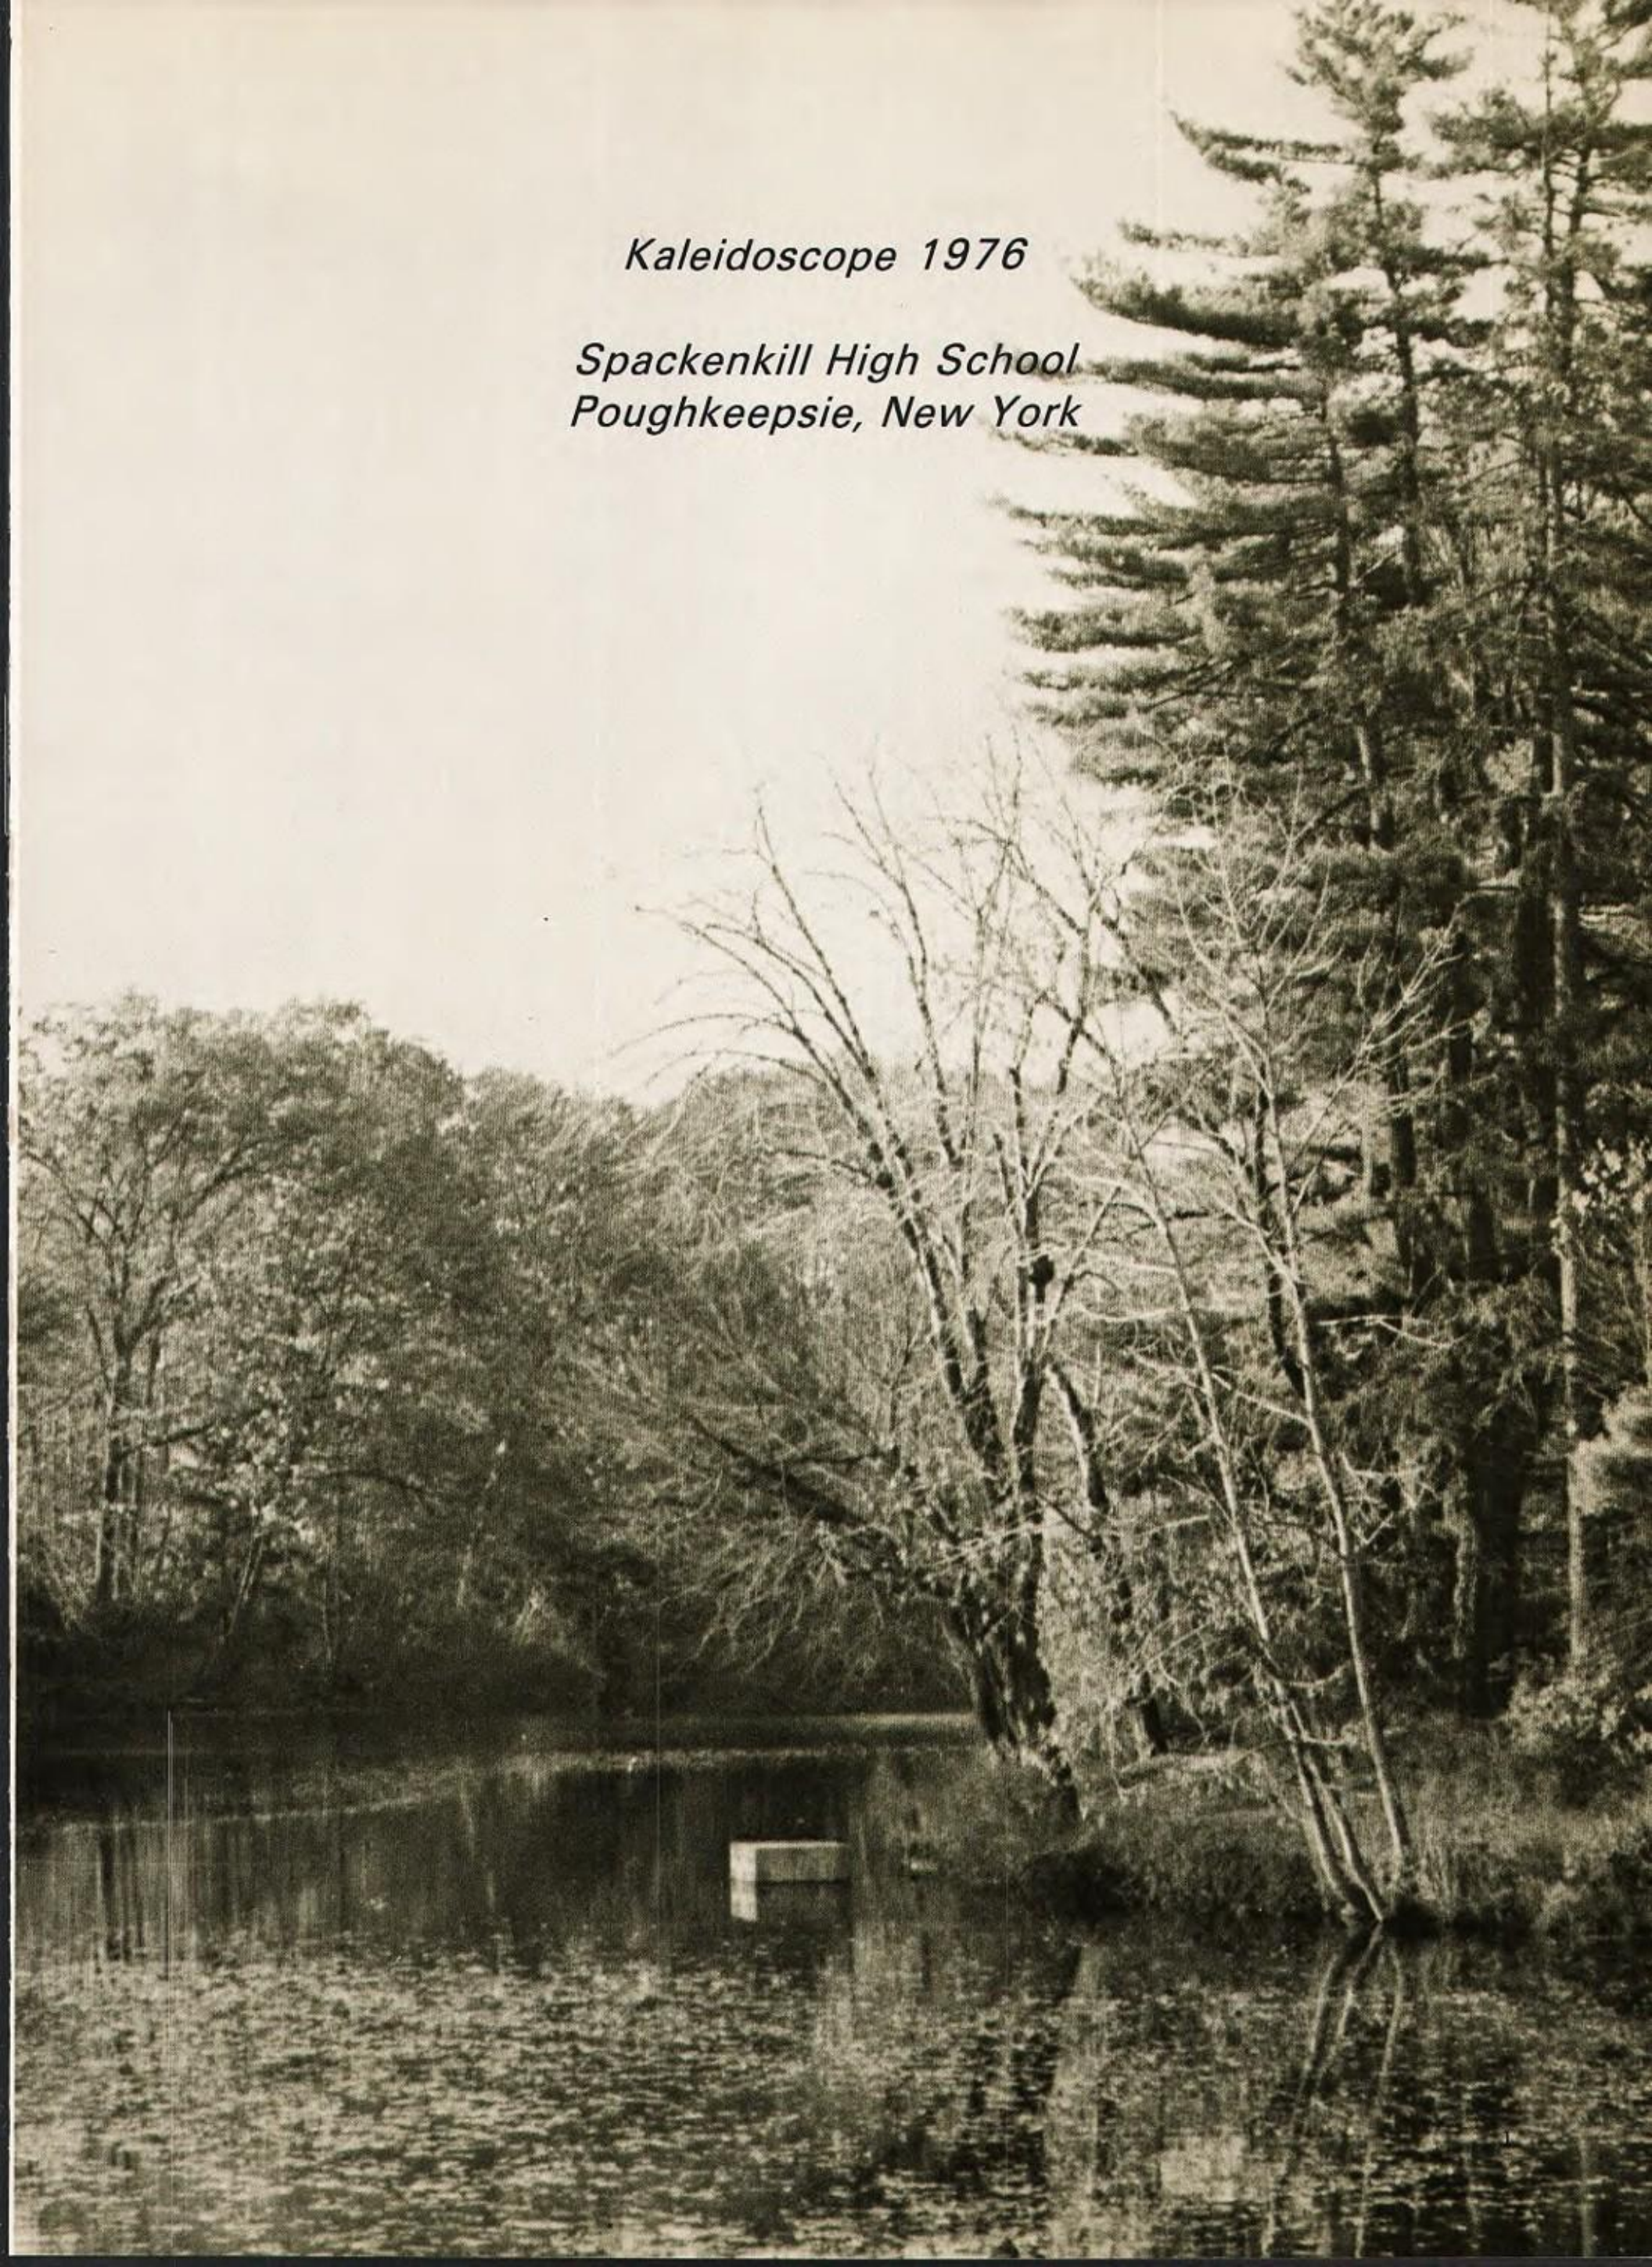
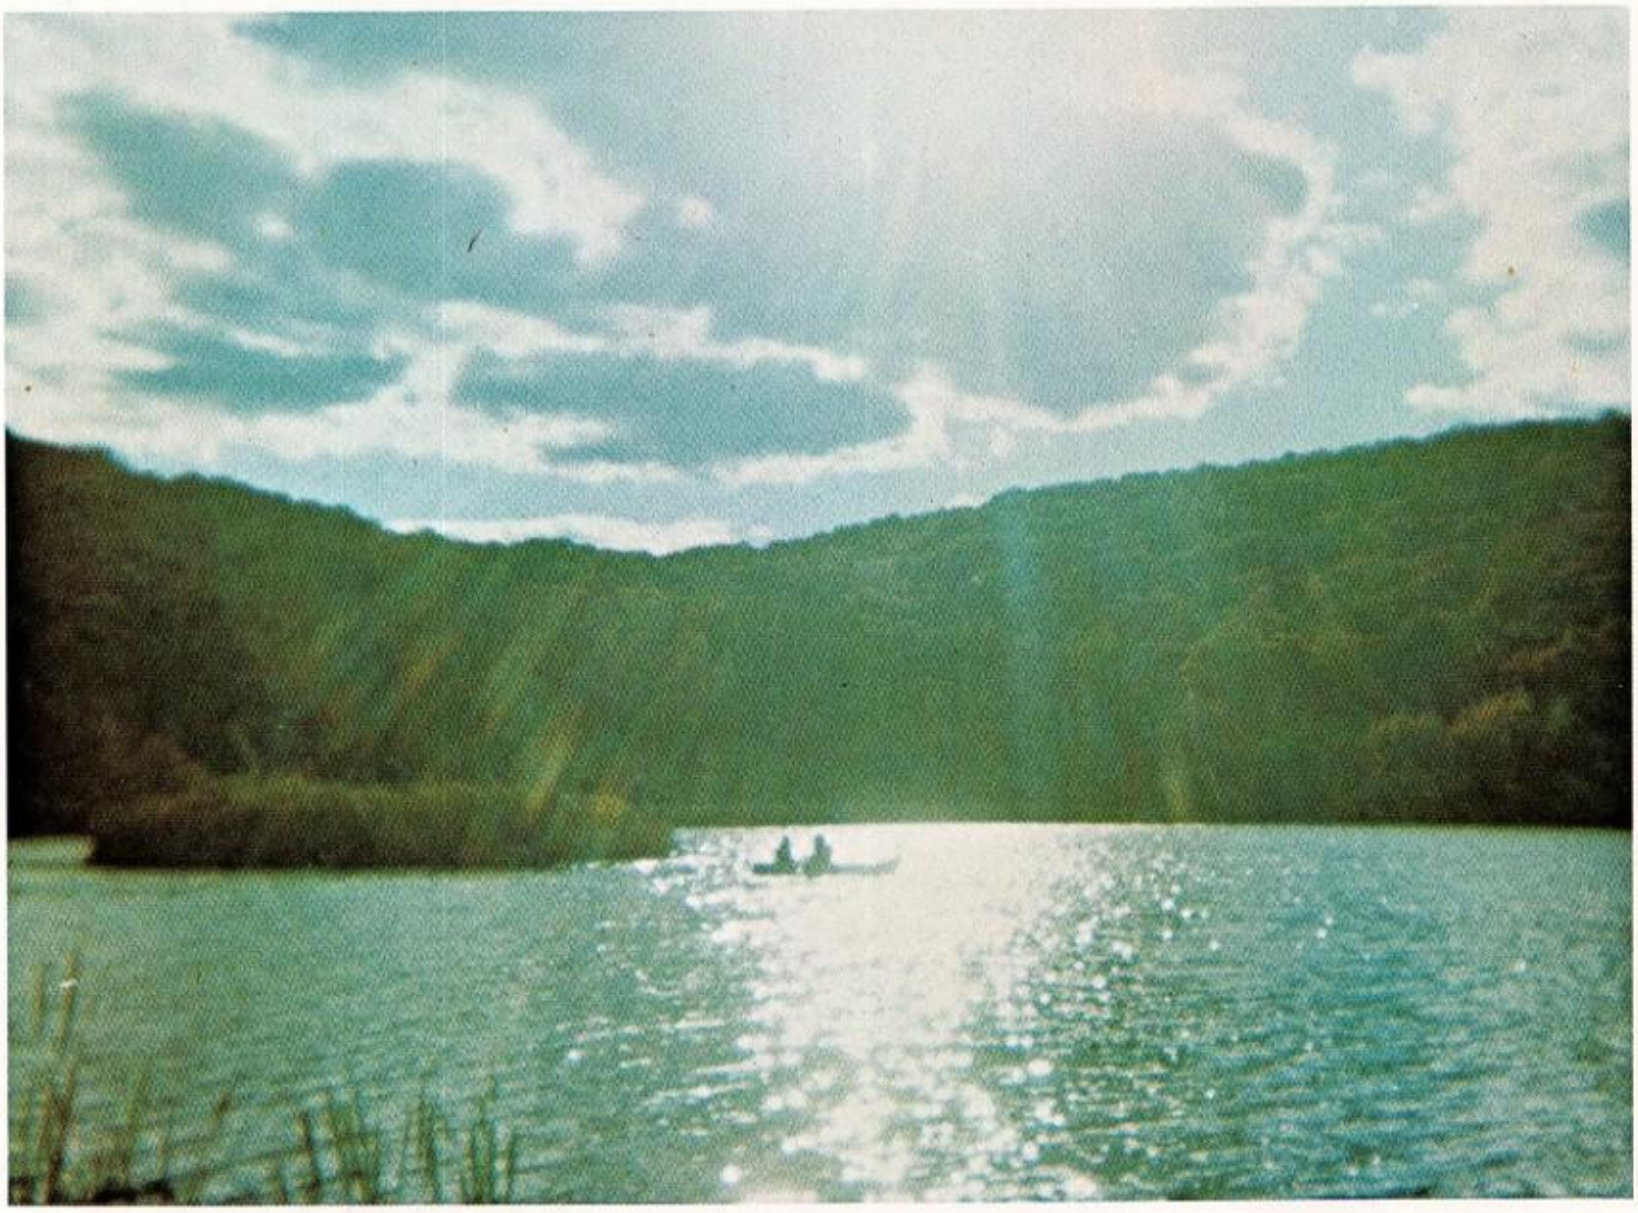
Kaleidoscope 1976

Spackenkill High School
Poughkeepsie, New York



I Am

Yes, you are.



I understand because I am too.
Each of us exists separate and alone.
This is your spring, your precious time to blossom, to be.

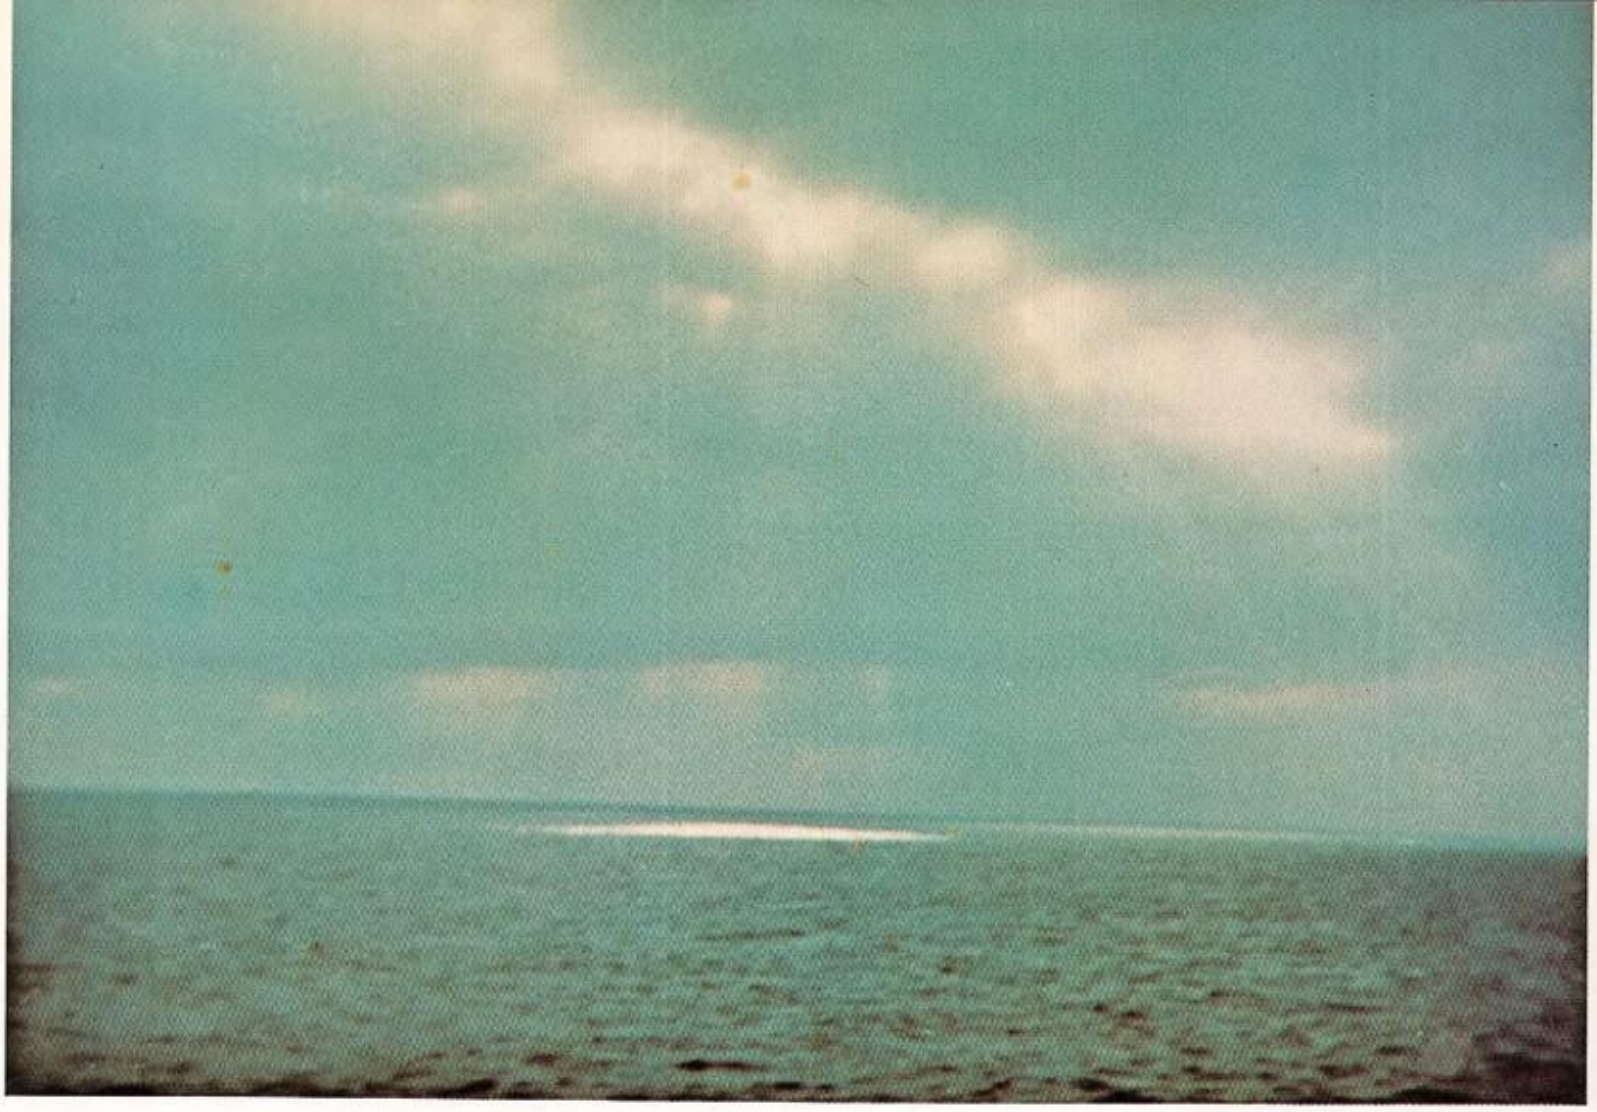
I have joined the earth
Like a tidepool . . .
Filled by the mist
And the great waves

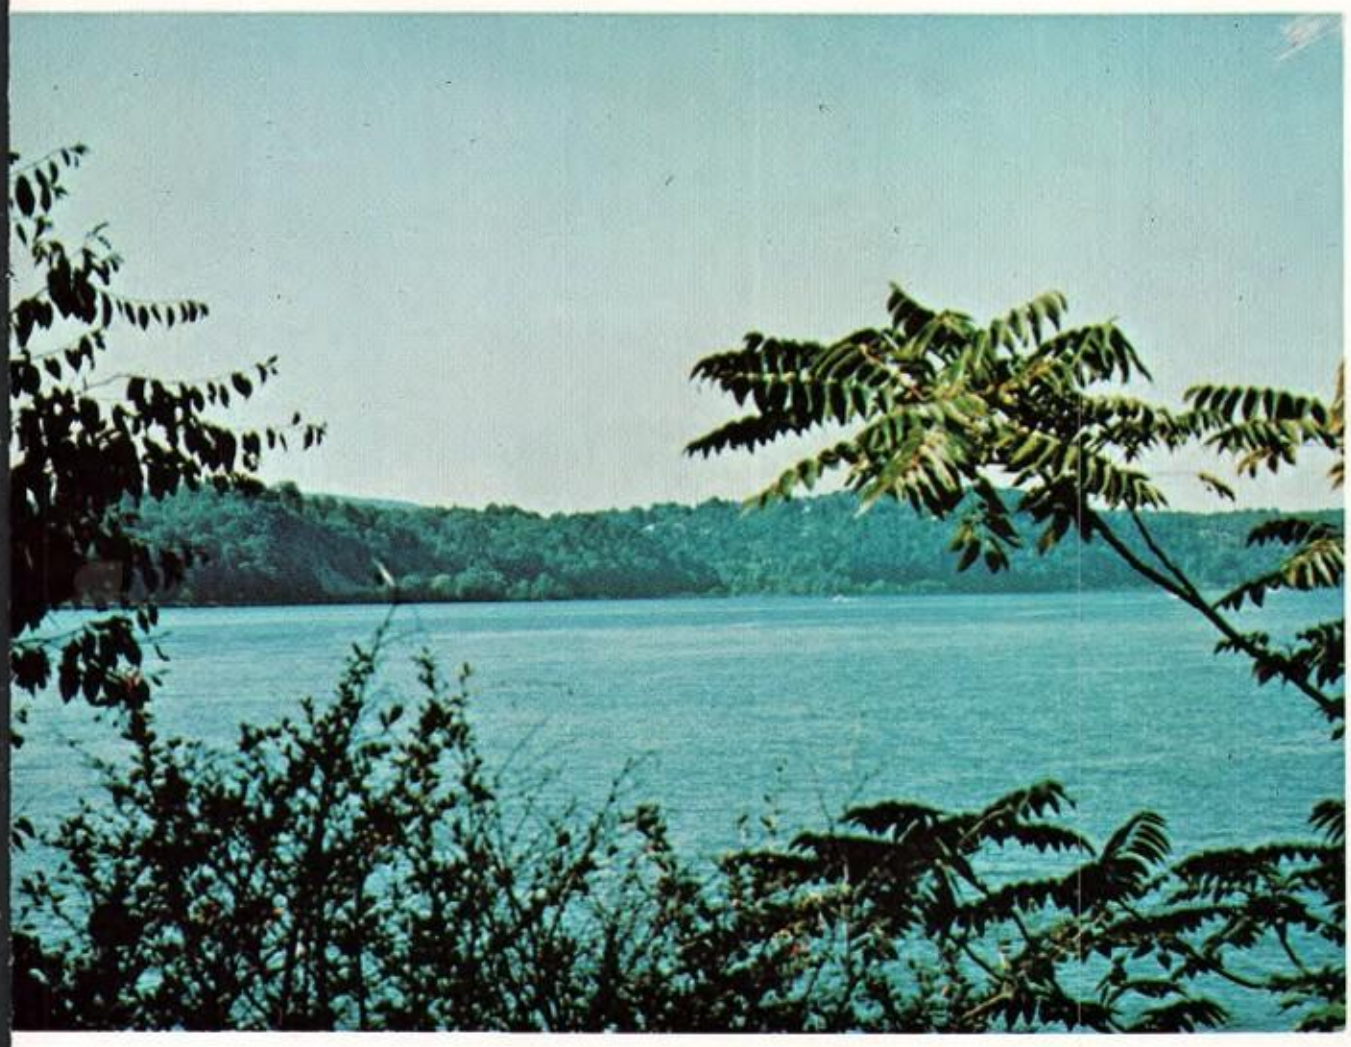


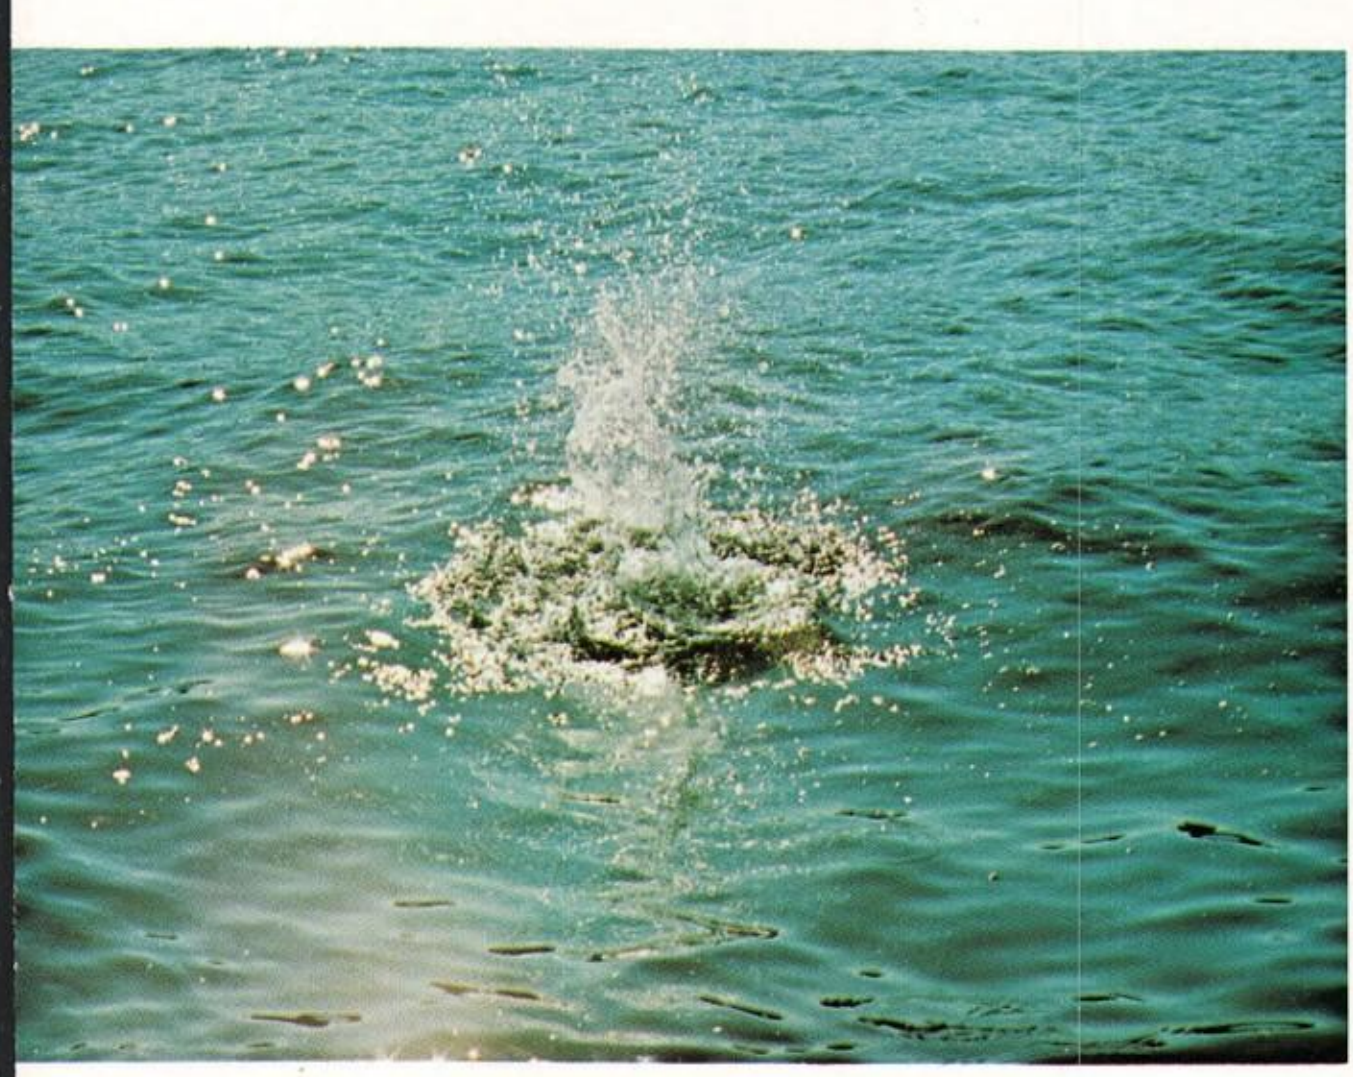
Giving of myself
To the air and the earth

Living at peace
With the sun and moon
Cousin to the fog and rain.

I am not alone

There are times when I think I am,
Feel like I am
Alone and lost.

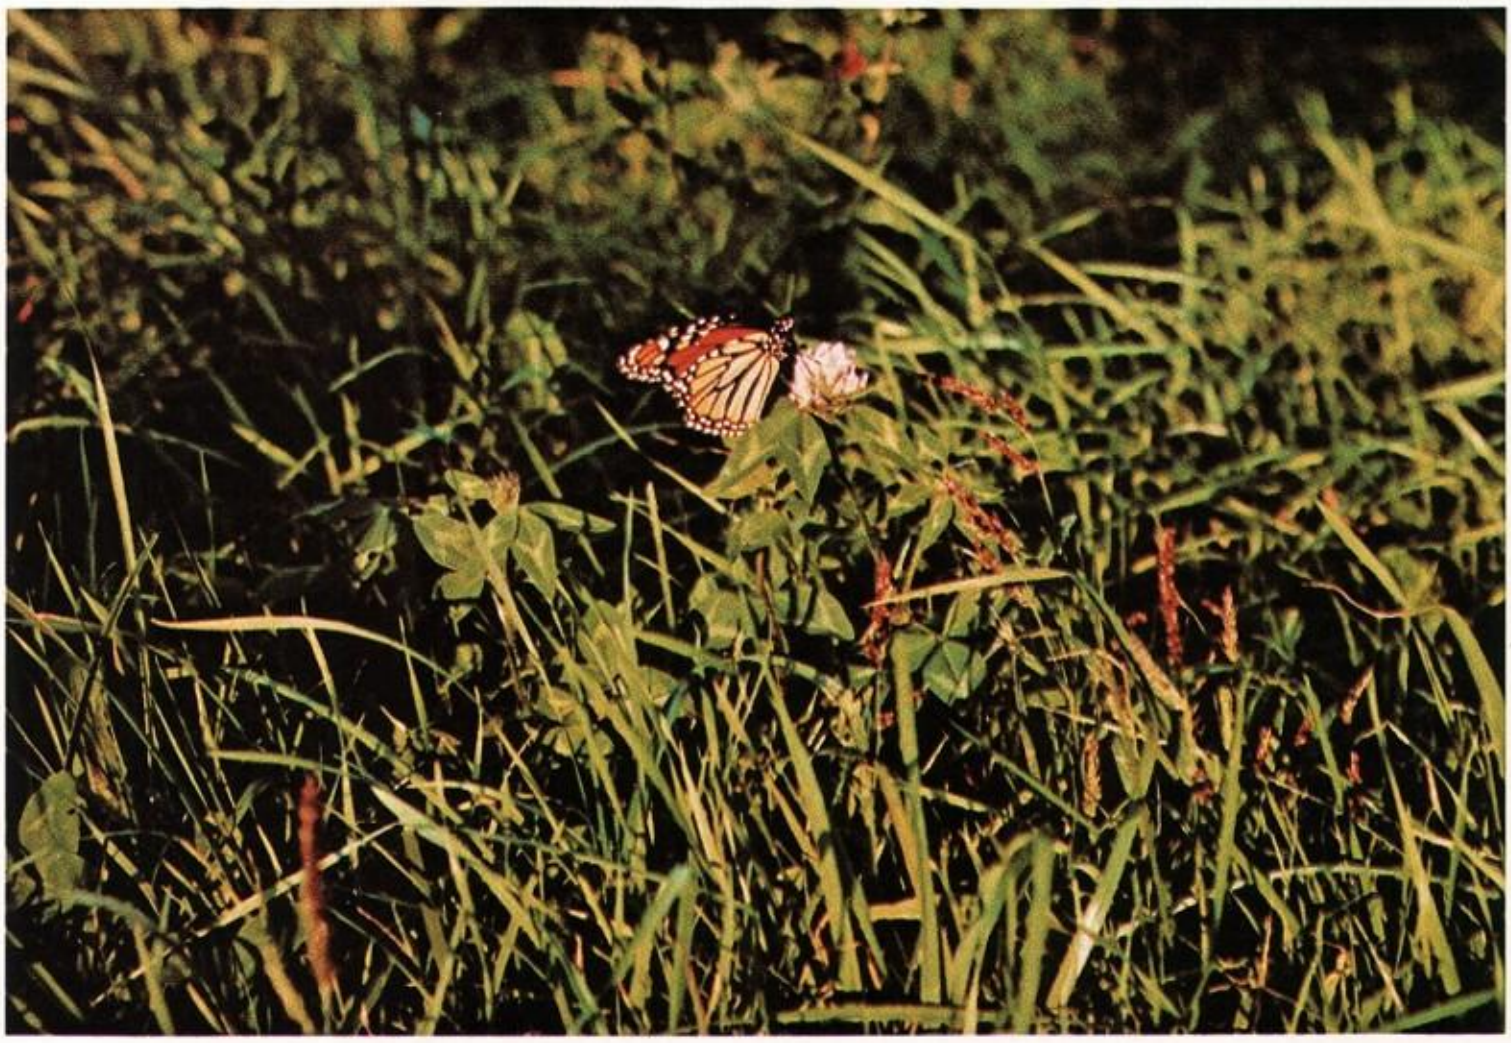




In my heart.
Is the seed of the tree
Which will be me.

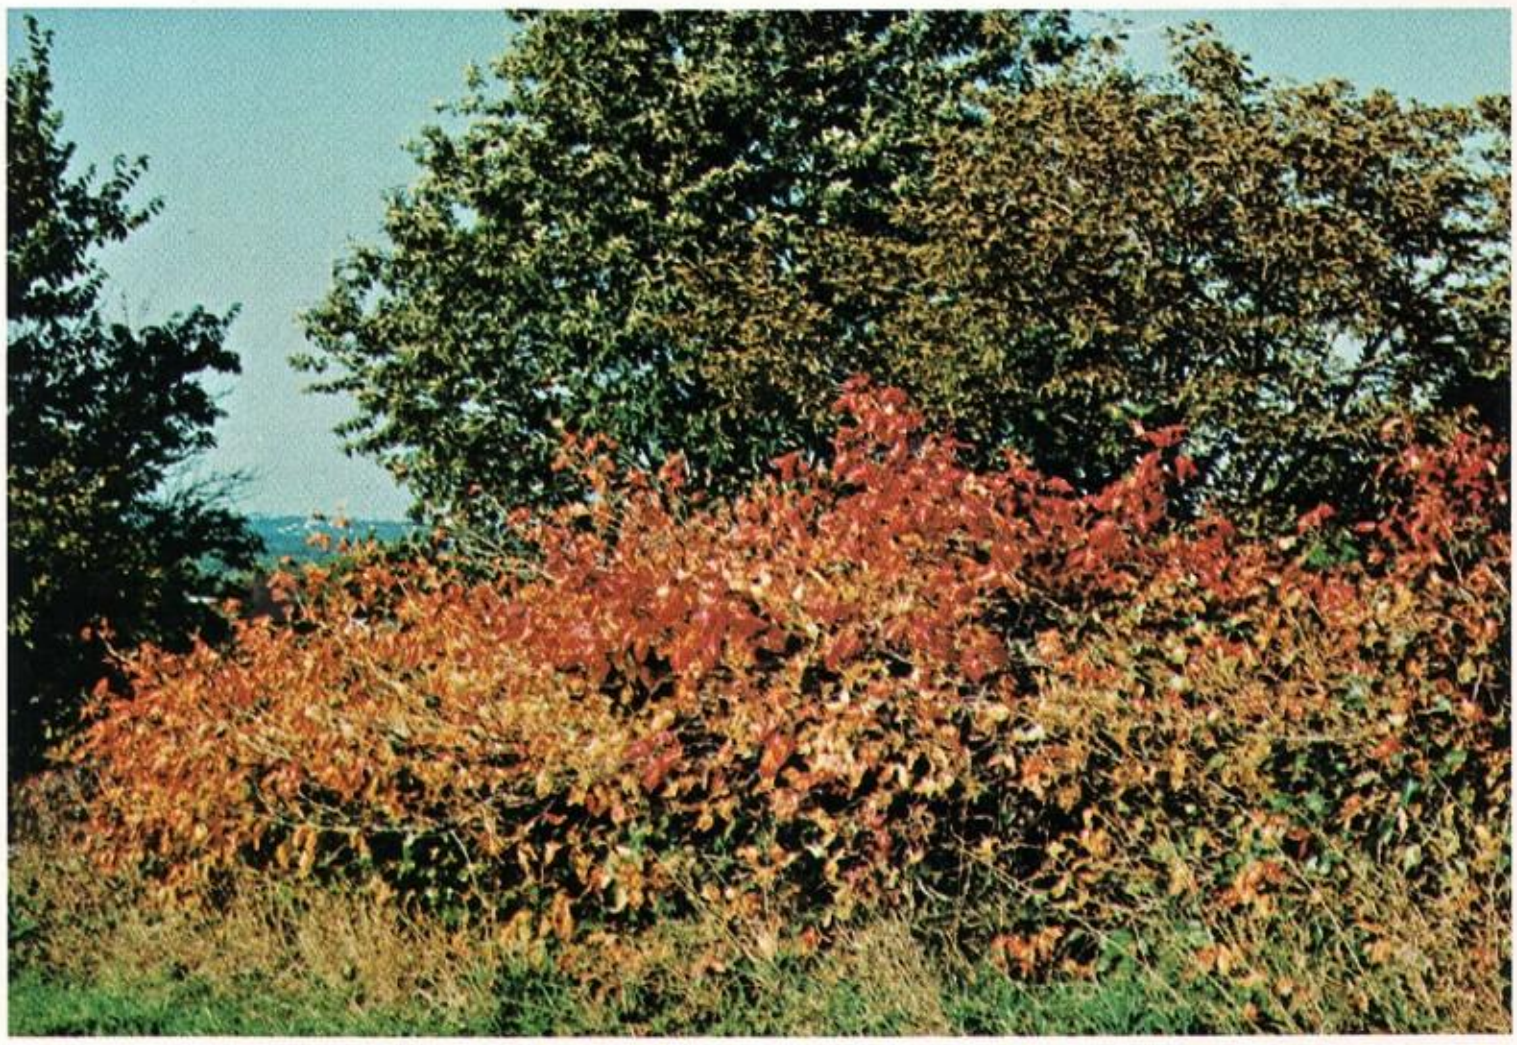
Nourished by understanding
Warmed by friends
Fed by loved ones
Matured by wisdom
Tempered by tears.

Some rush about in preparation;
Some struggle to be nearest to the gate.
Some climb to be at the highest place.



And yet,
we shall all be born.
All will move about
In time
And space.

The seasons pass;
The seed sprouts.
The young branches begin to form,
To reach out for new experiences,
New contacts,
To test their strength
In the wind,
To examine their size and shape,



As a child discovers
Its own hands and feet.

THE 1976 KALEIDOSCOPE IS DEDICATED TO . . .

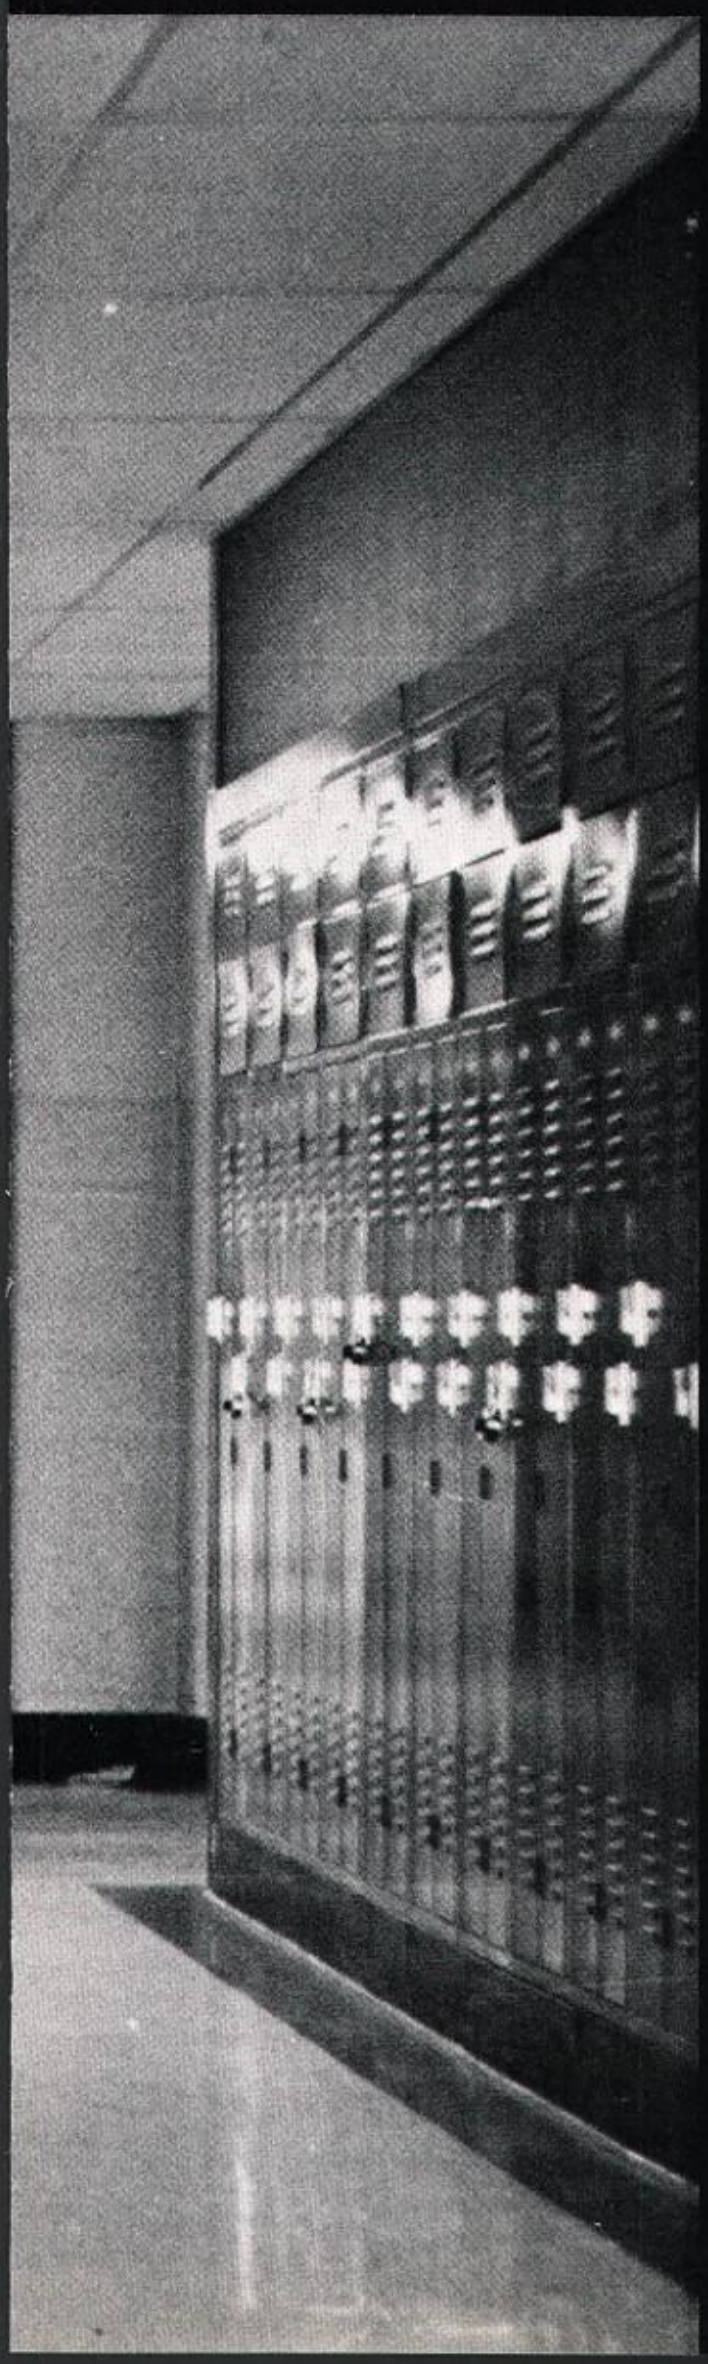
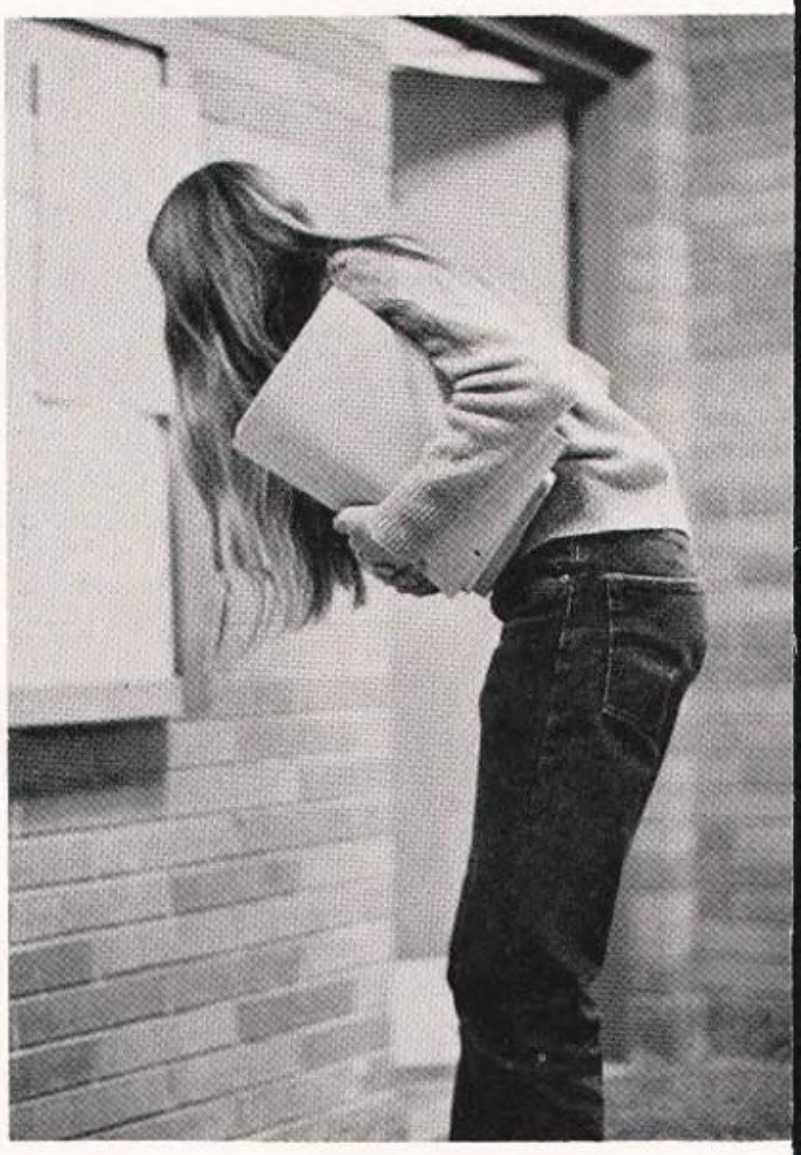
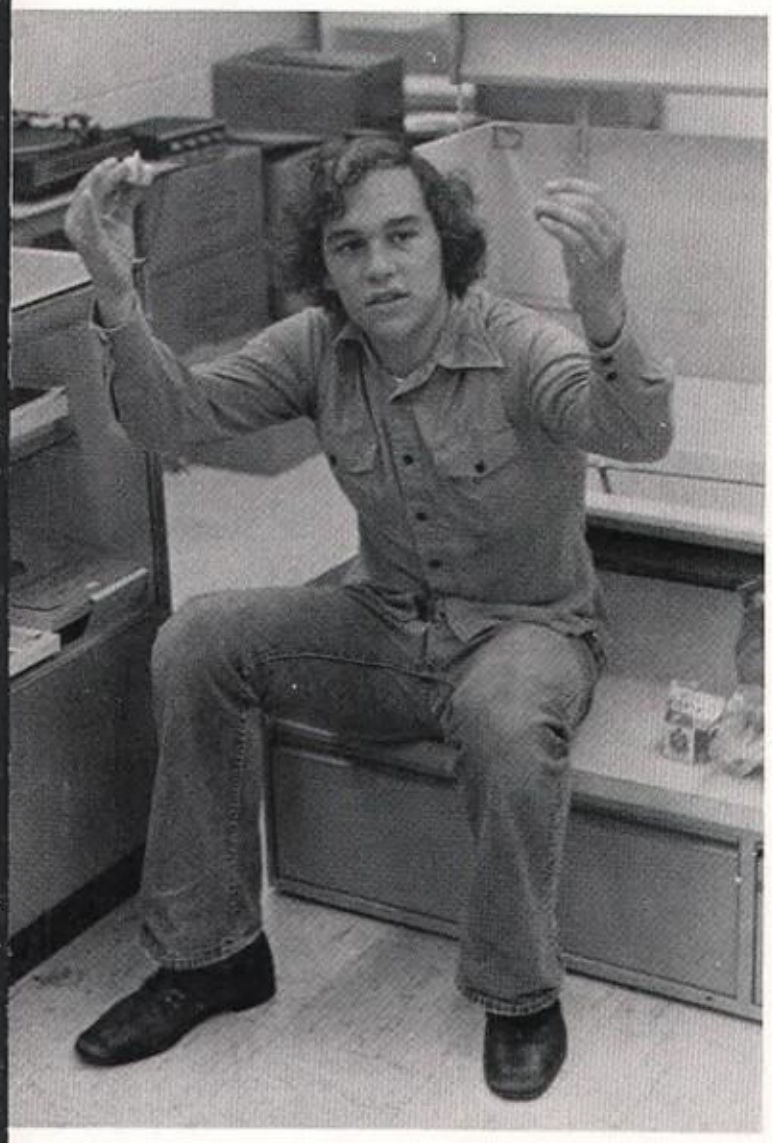
SOLITUDE

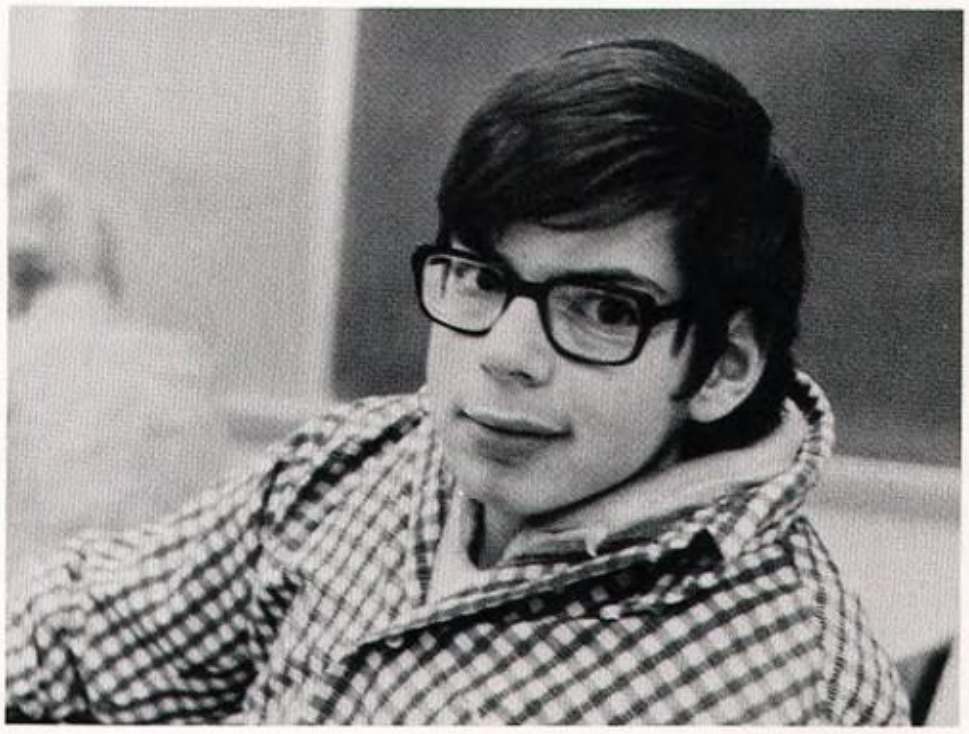


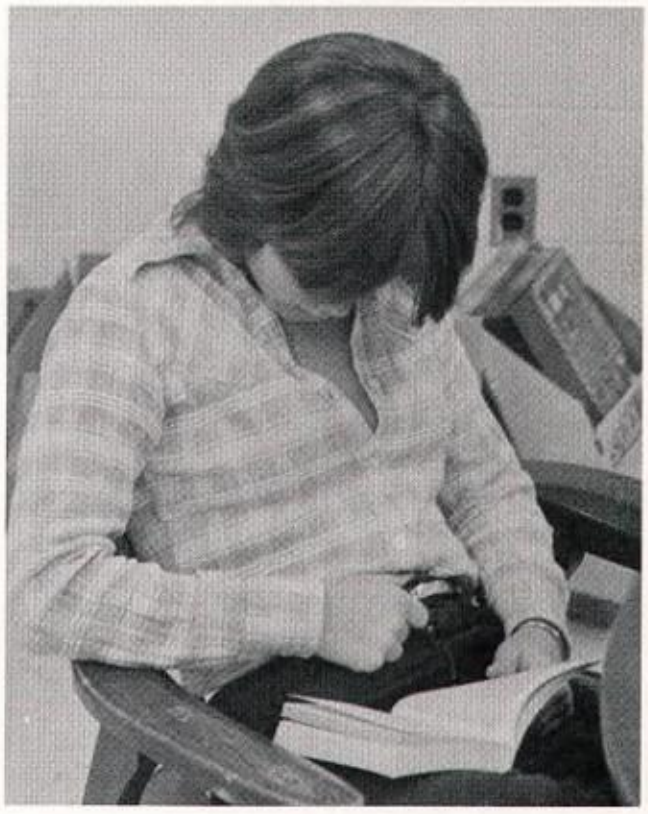
It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after your own; but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.

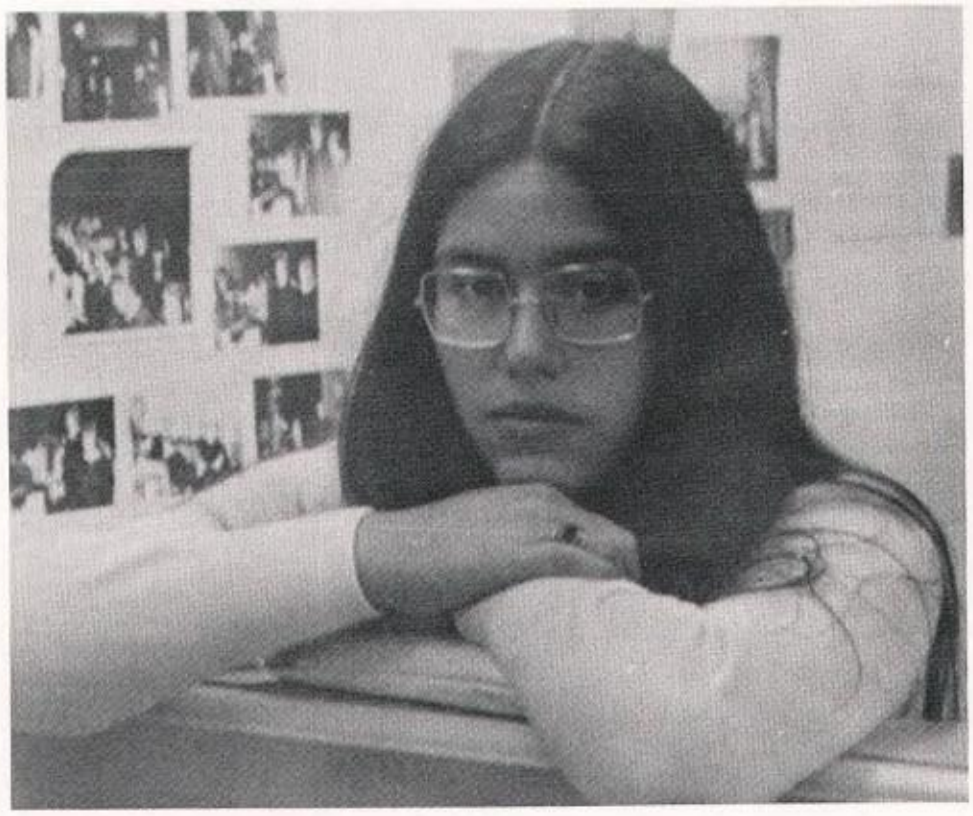


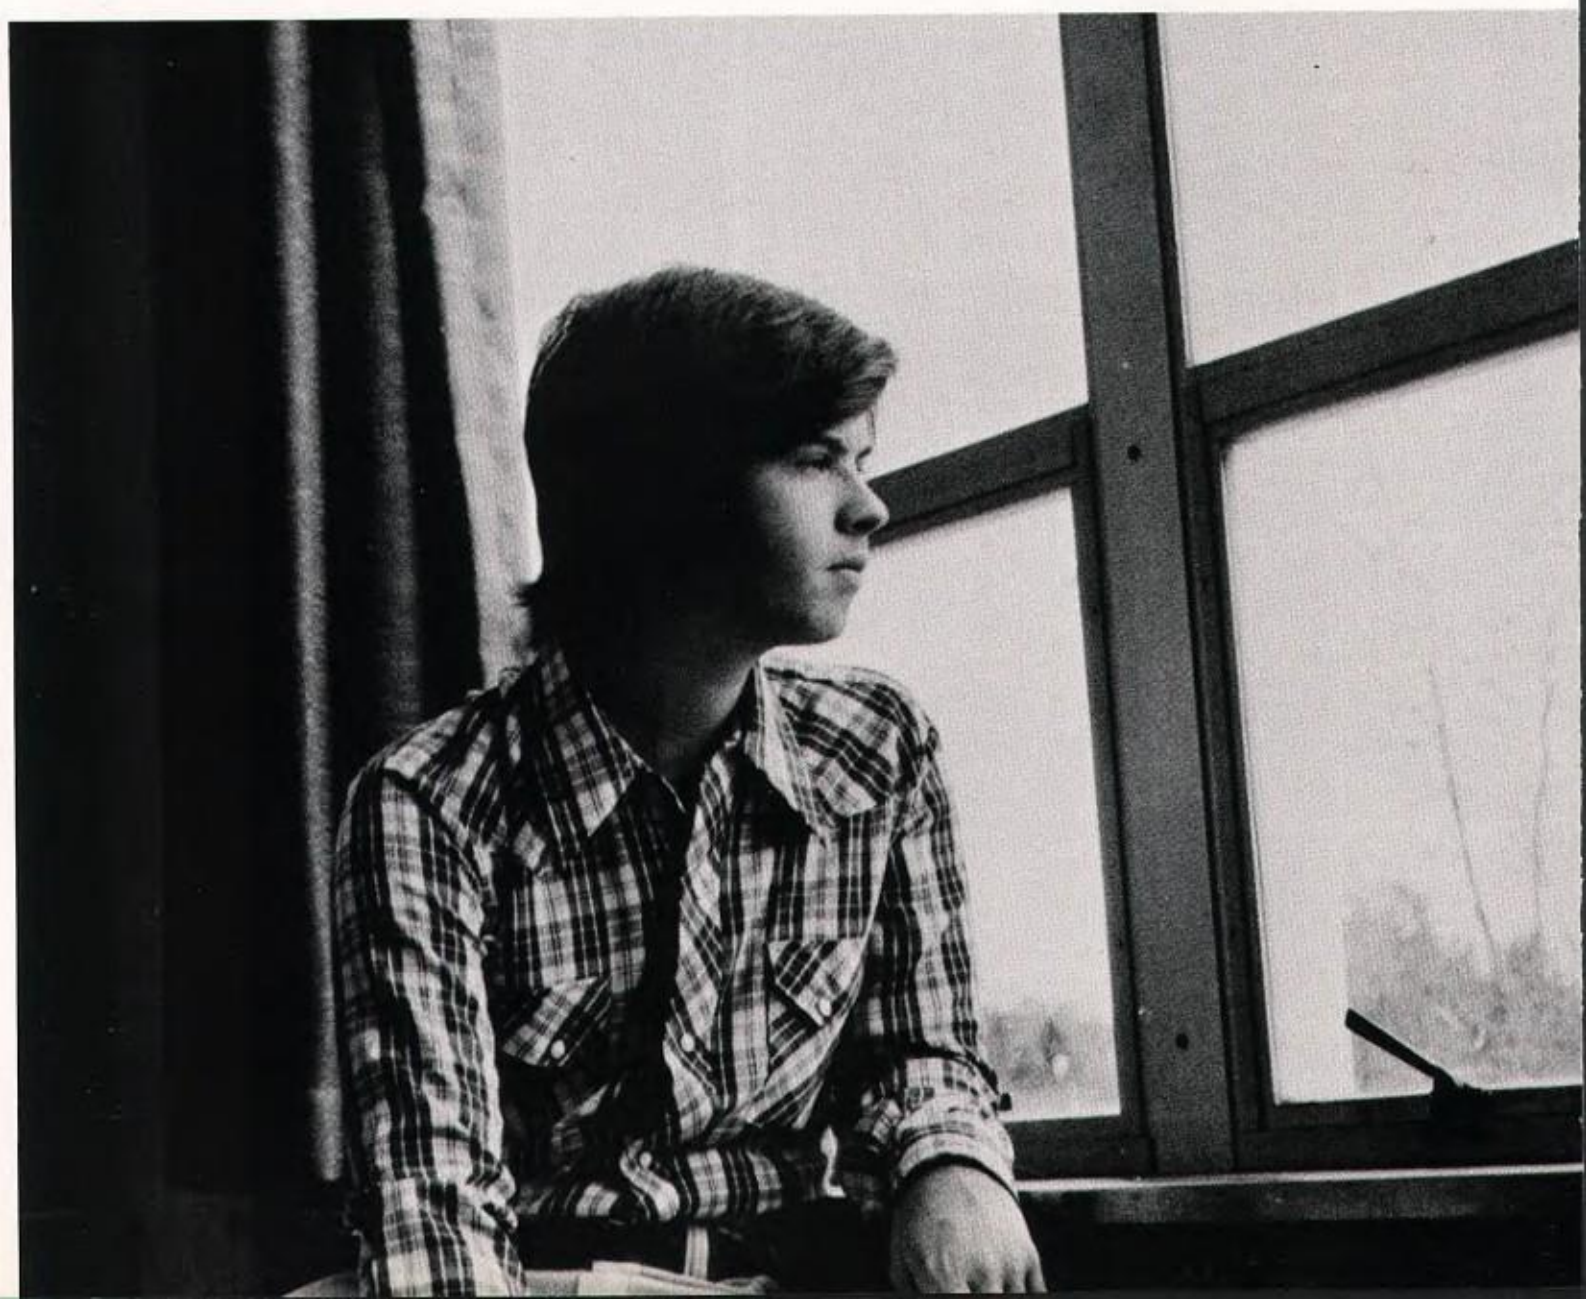


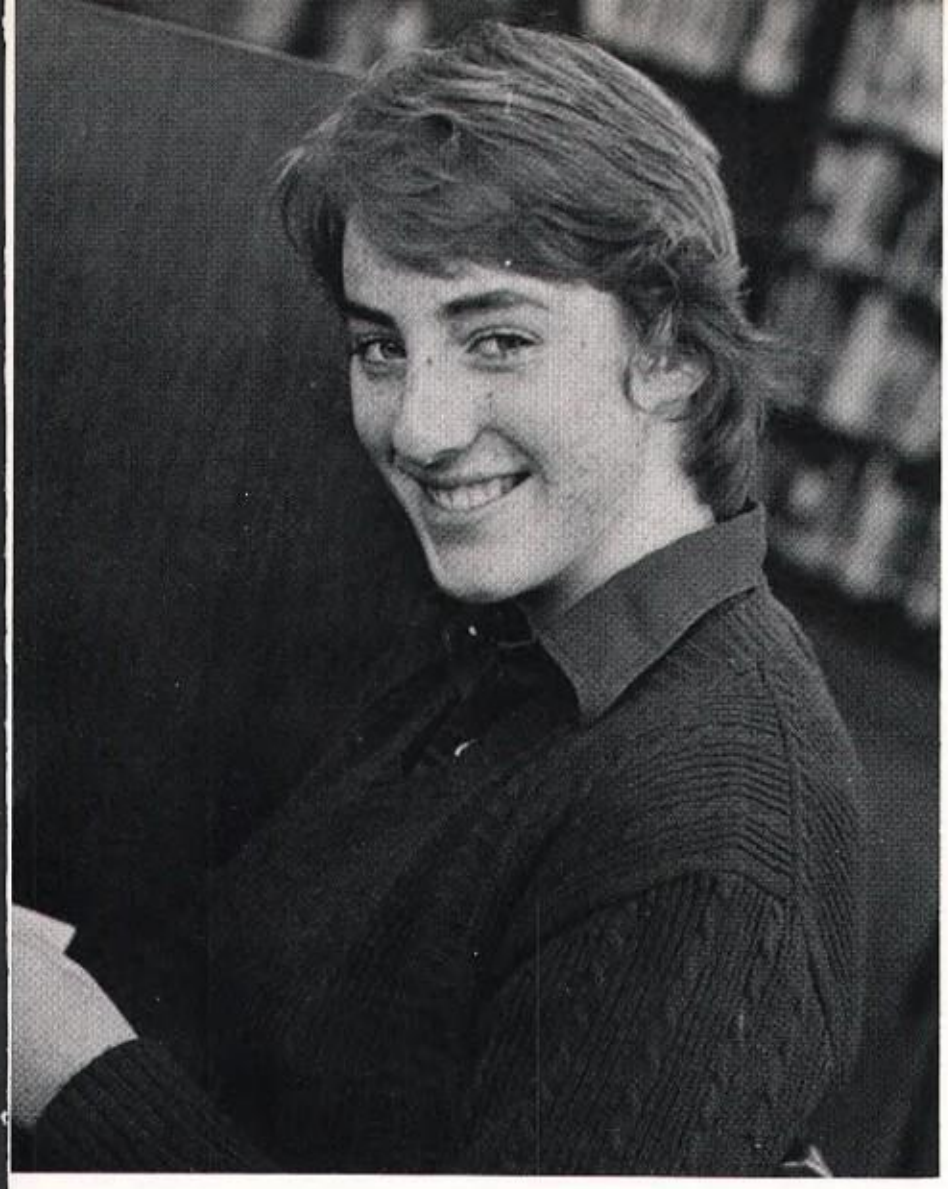
EXISTING

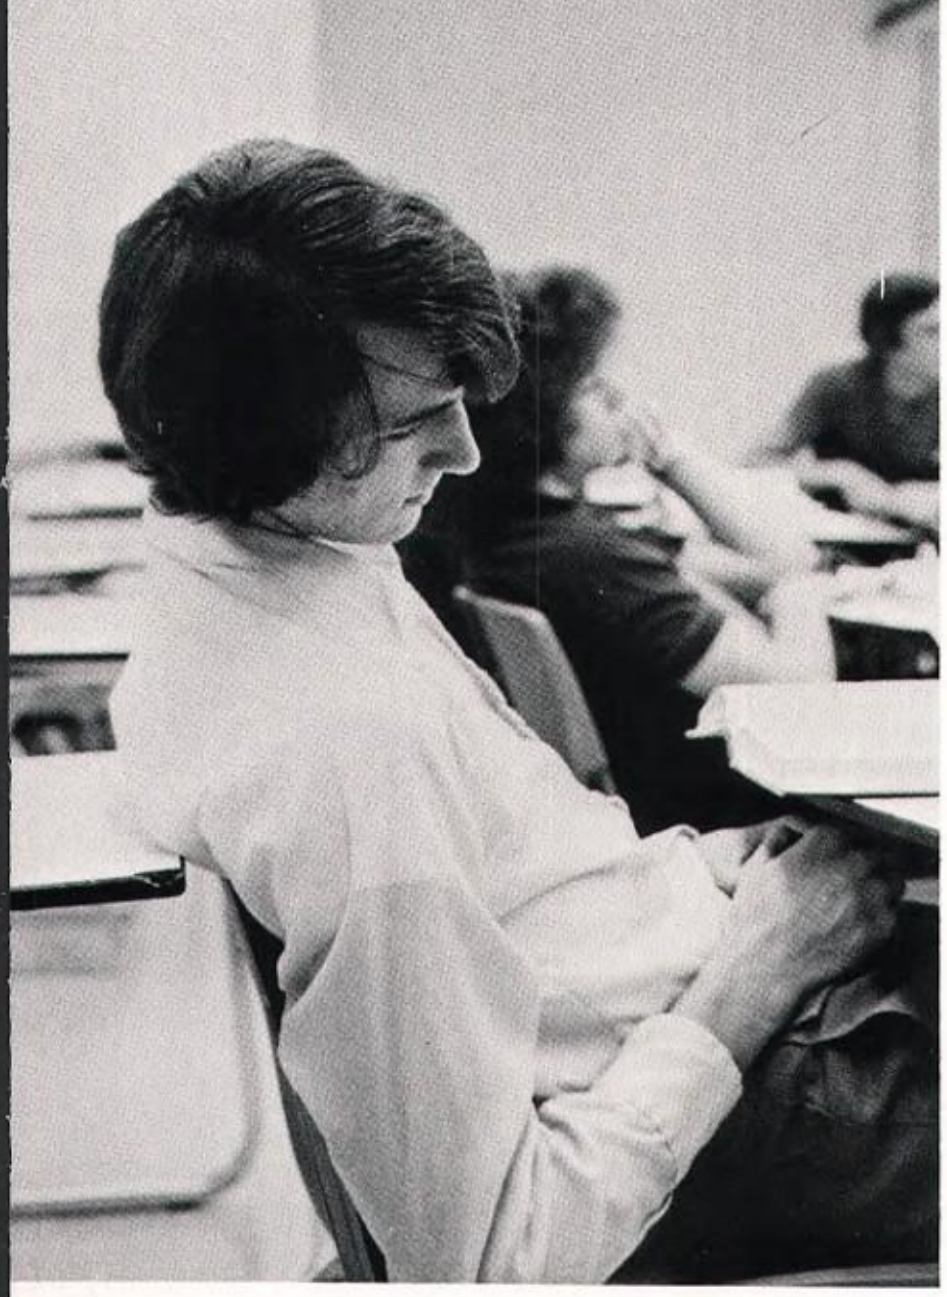




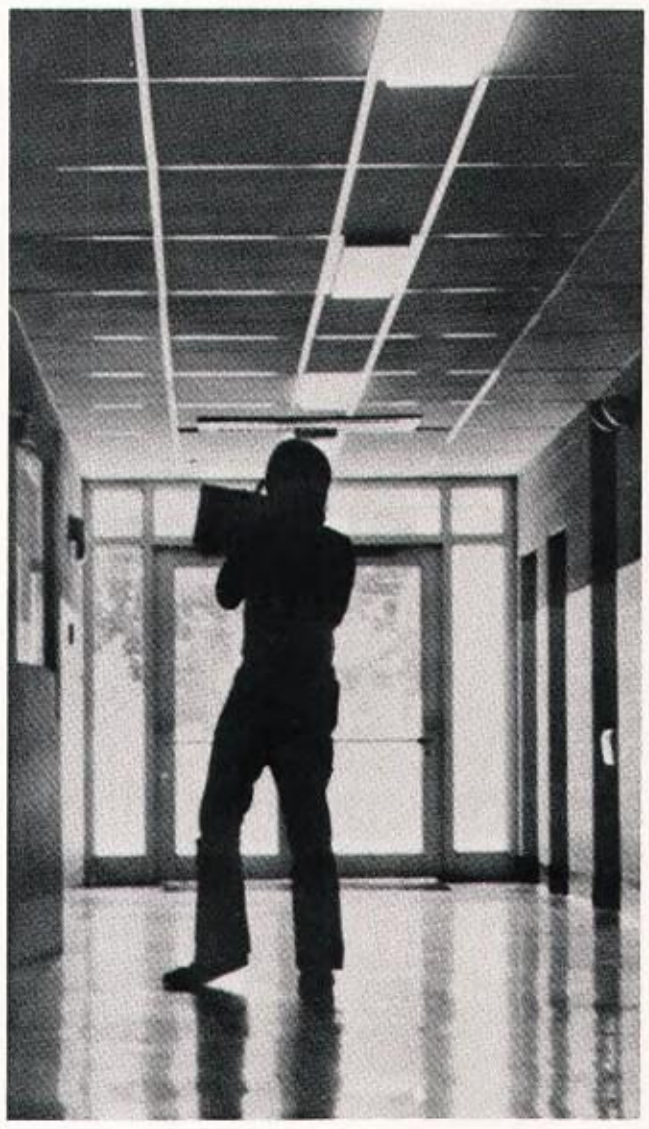








UNIQUENESS



When things go wrong, as they sometimes will
When the road you're trudging seems uphill
When the funds are low and the debts are high
When care is pressing you down a bit
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

You've Got A Friend

When you're down and troubled
And you need some loving care
And nothing, nothing is going right
Close your eyes and think of me
And soon I will be there
To brighten up even your darkest night.

You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running to see you again
Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there. You've got a friend.

If the sky above you
Grows dark and full of clouds
And that old north wind begins to blow
Keep your head together
And call my name out loud
Soon you'll hear me knocking at your door.

You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running to see you again;
Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there.

Ain't it good to know
that you've got a friend
When people can be so cold
They'll hurt you, and desert you
And take your soul if you let them
Oh, but don't you let them.

You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running to see you again
Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there. You've got a friend.

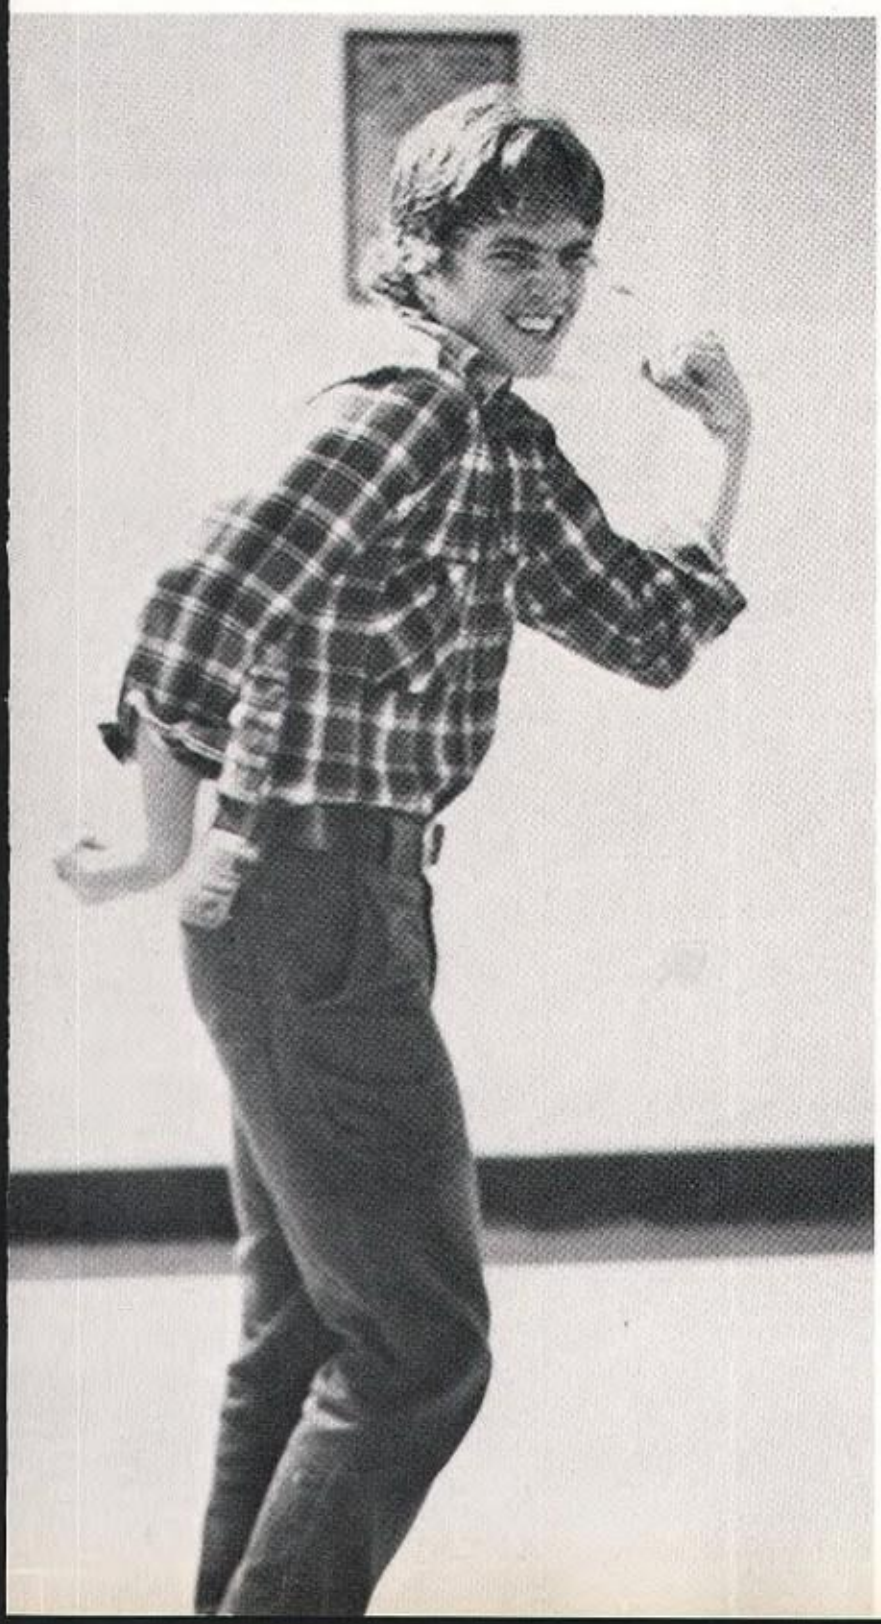
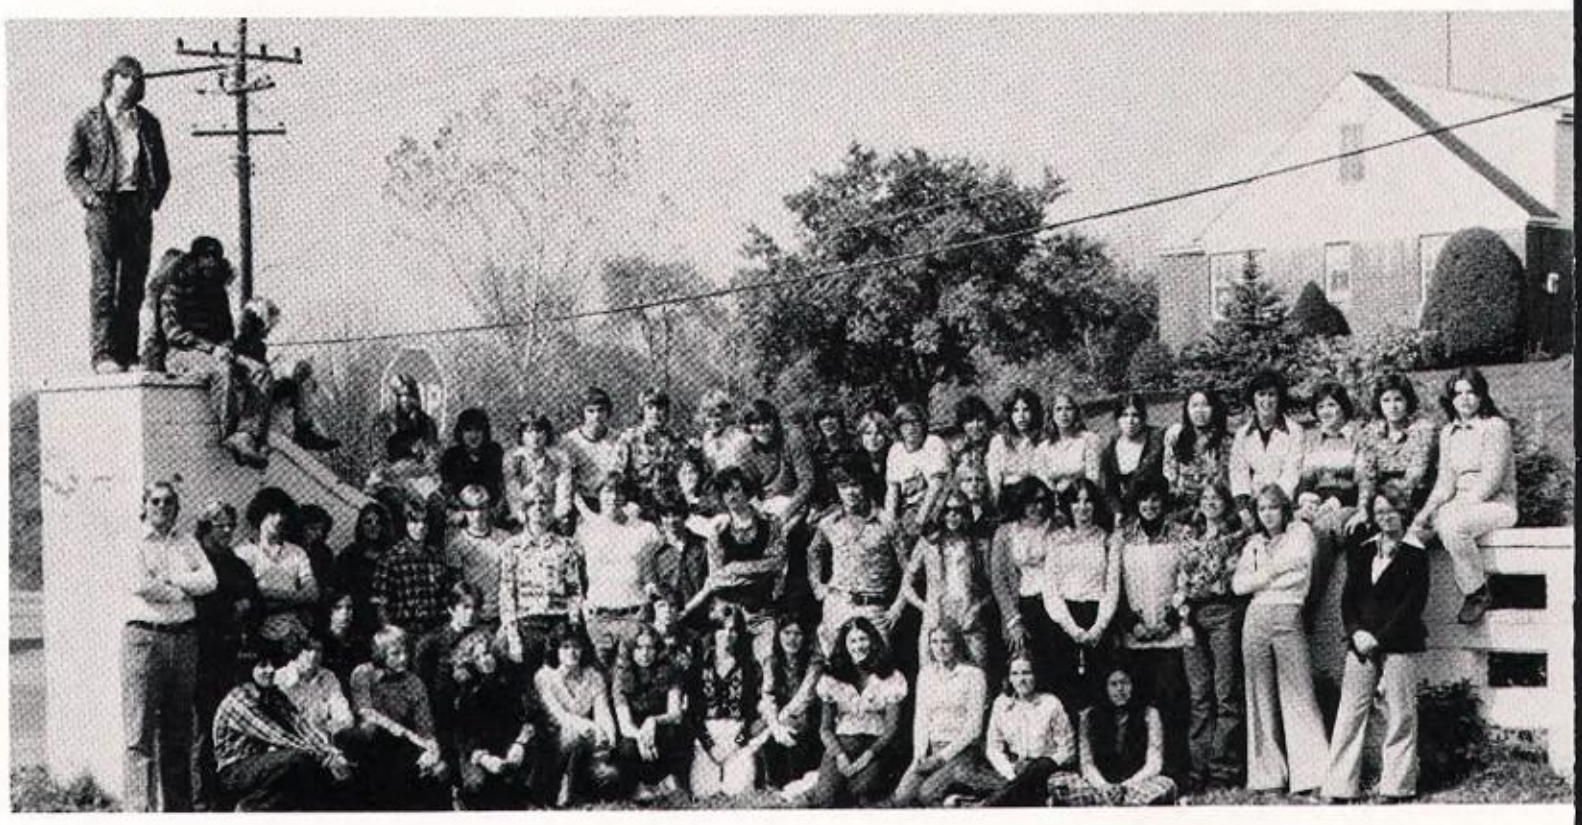
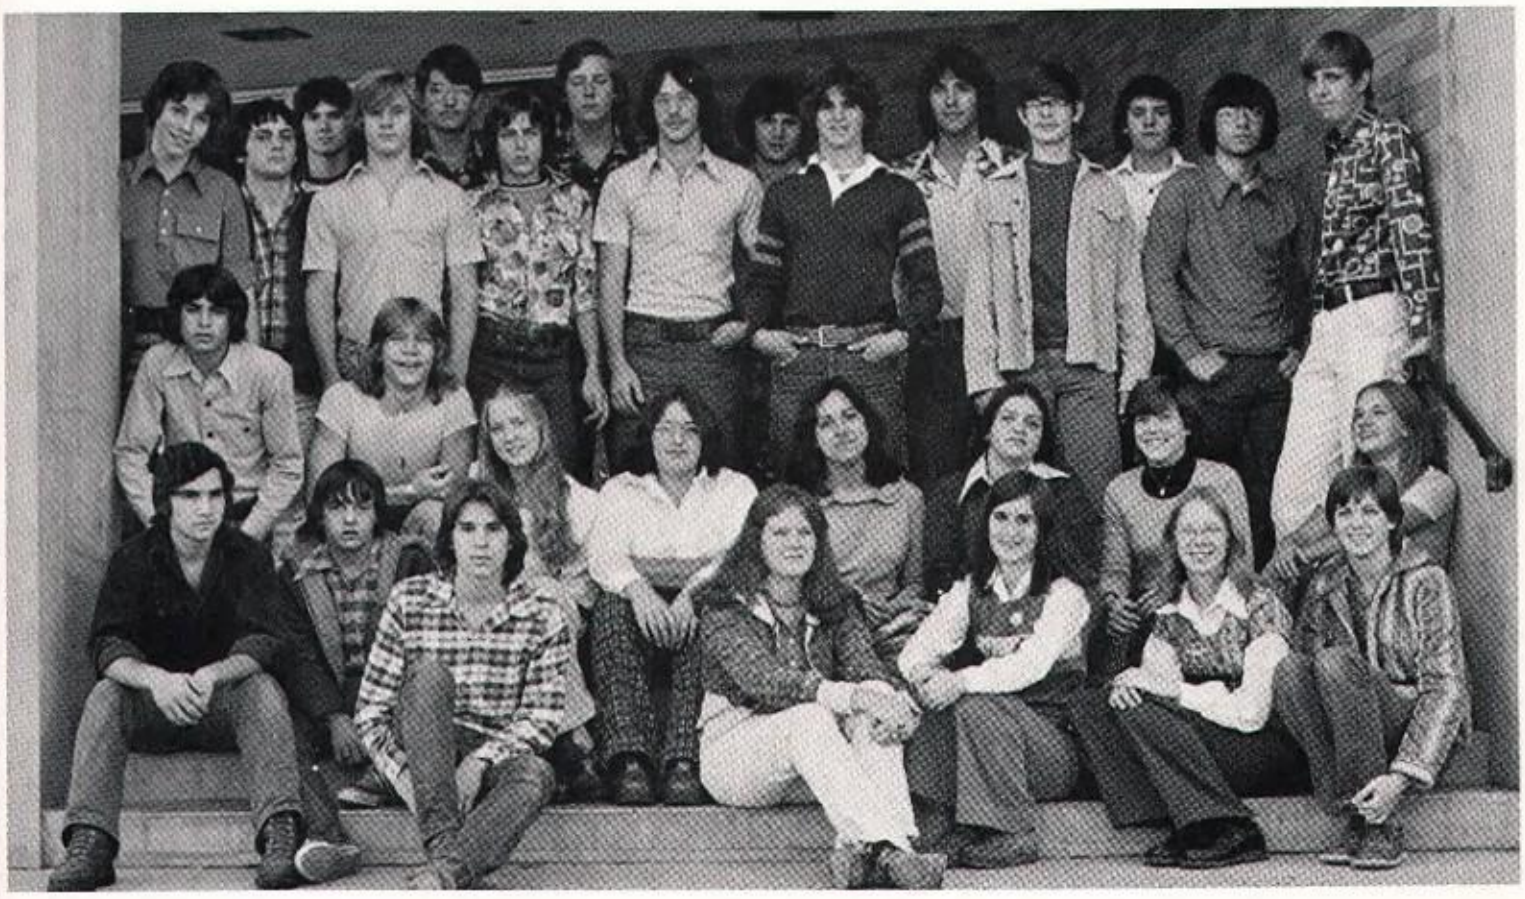
MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS

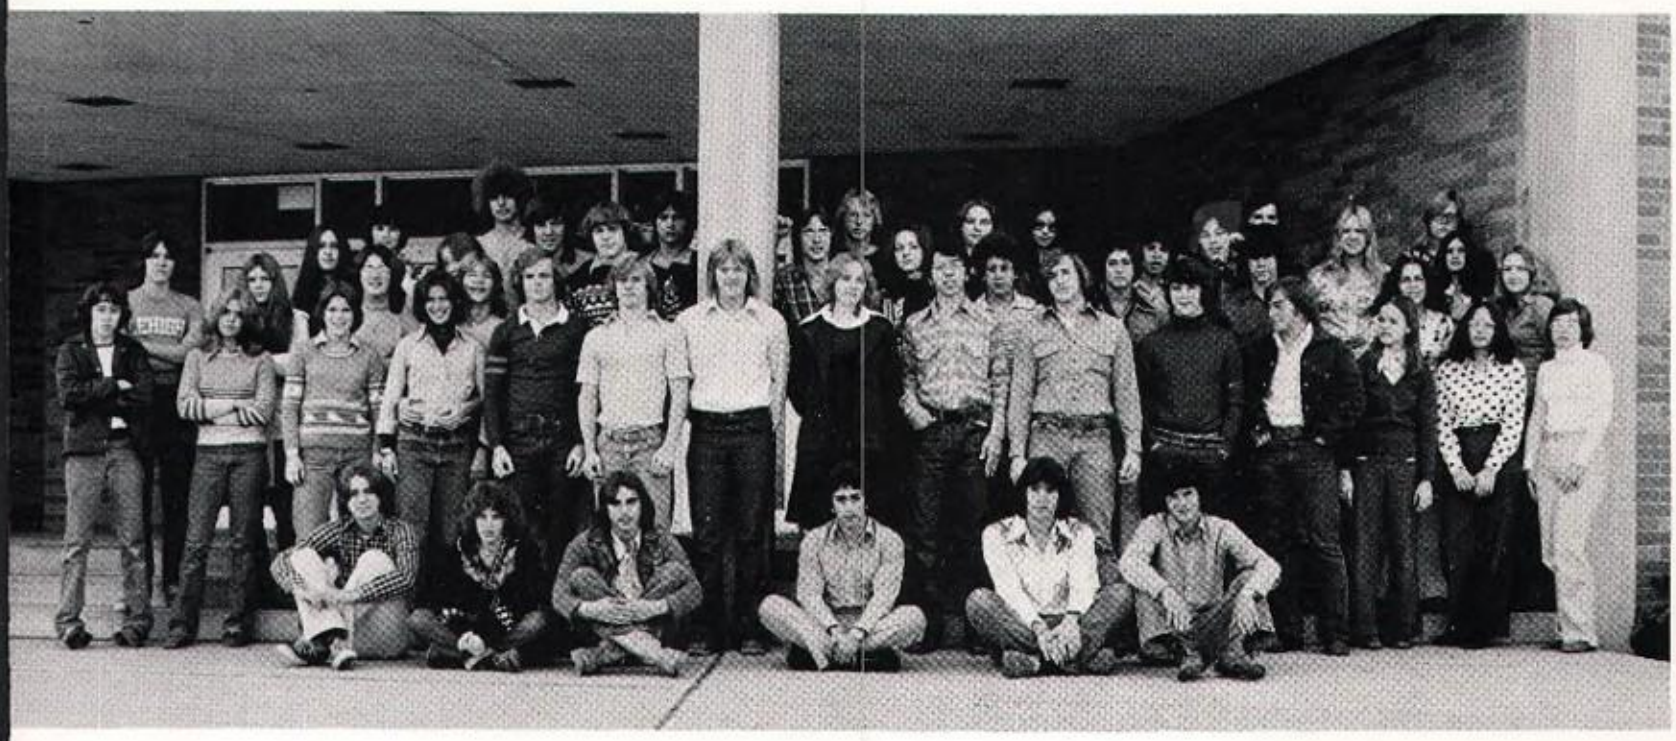




THESE ARE THE TIMES



I WISH I KNEW HOW IT WOULD FEEL TO BE FREE



INDIVIDUALS IN ACTION

IF IT'S EVER SO SMALL THE PART YOU TAKE,
THE WORLD HAS NEED OF YOU.

BE IT BIG OR LITTLE THE EFFORT YOU MAKE,
THE WORLD HAS NEED OF YOU.

GET BUSY . . . DON'T LET A CHANCE SLIP BY,
FOR THE WORLD HAS NEED OF YOU.

If you think you'll lose, you're lost.
For out in the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will
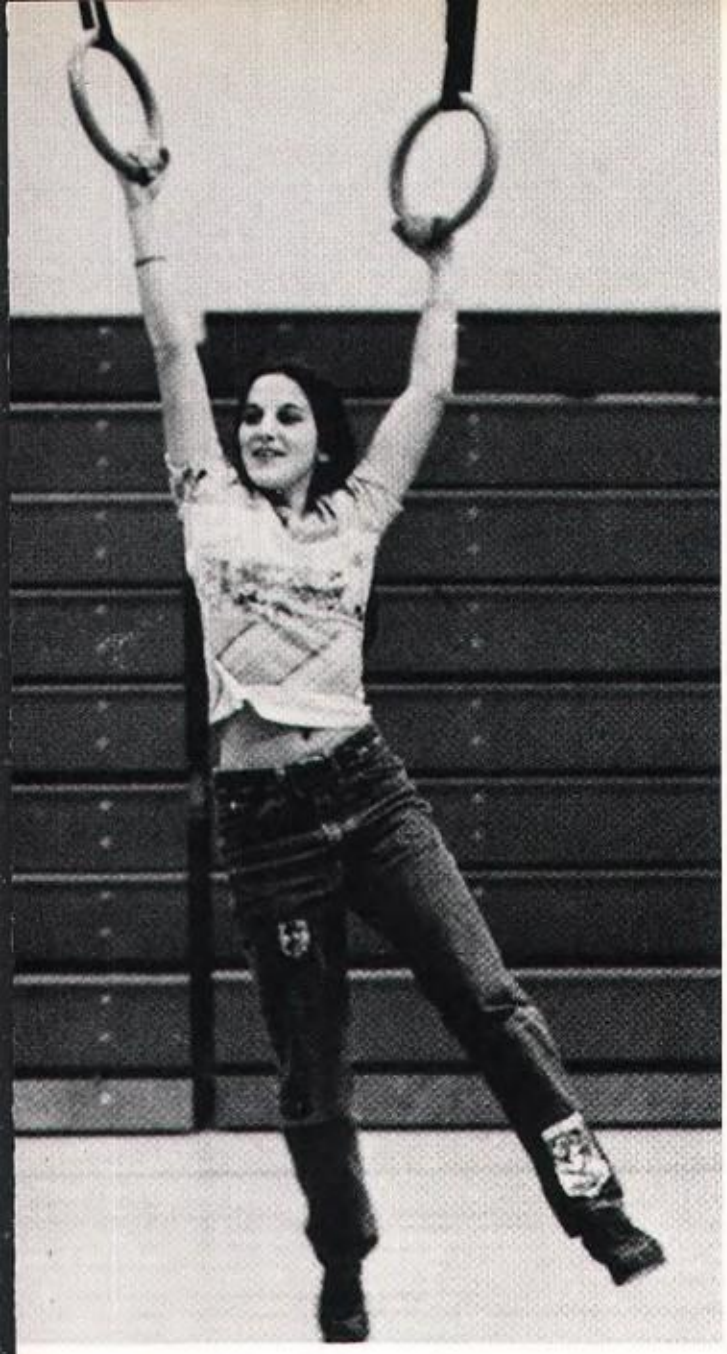
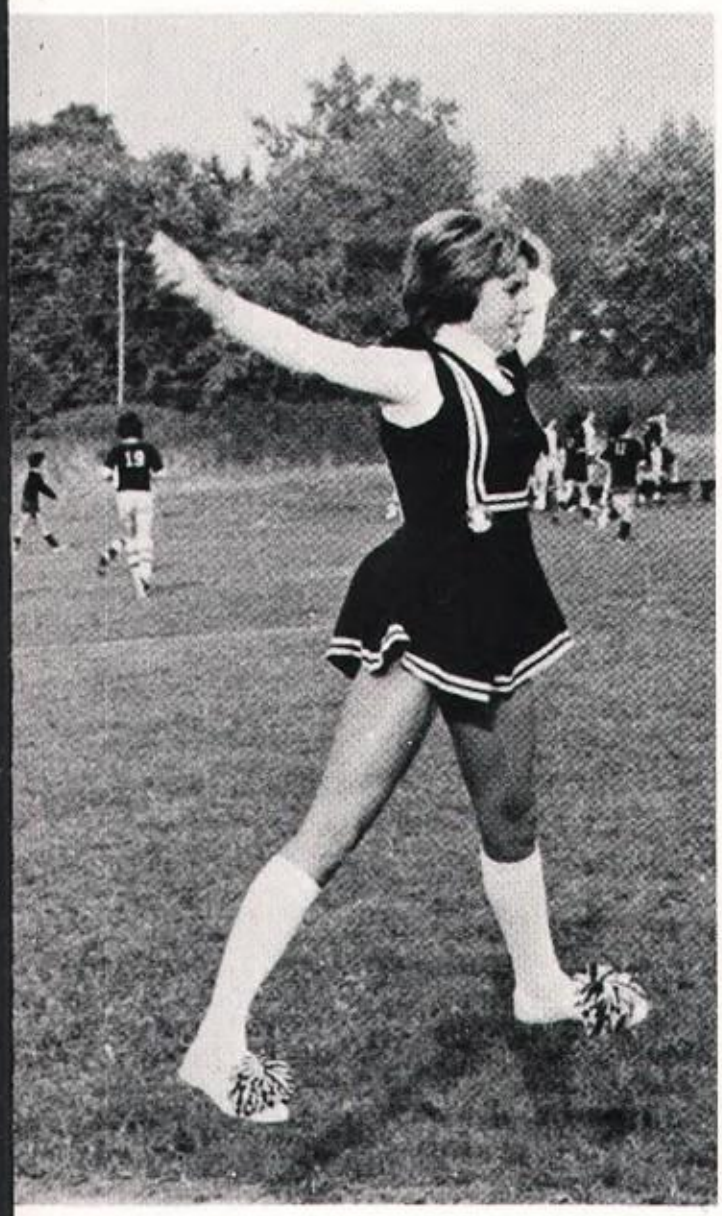
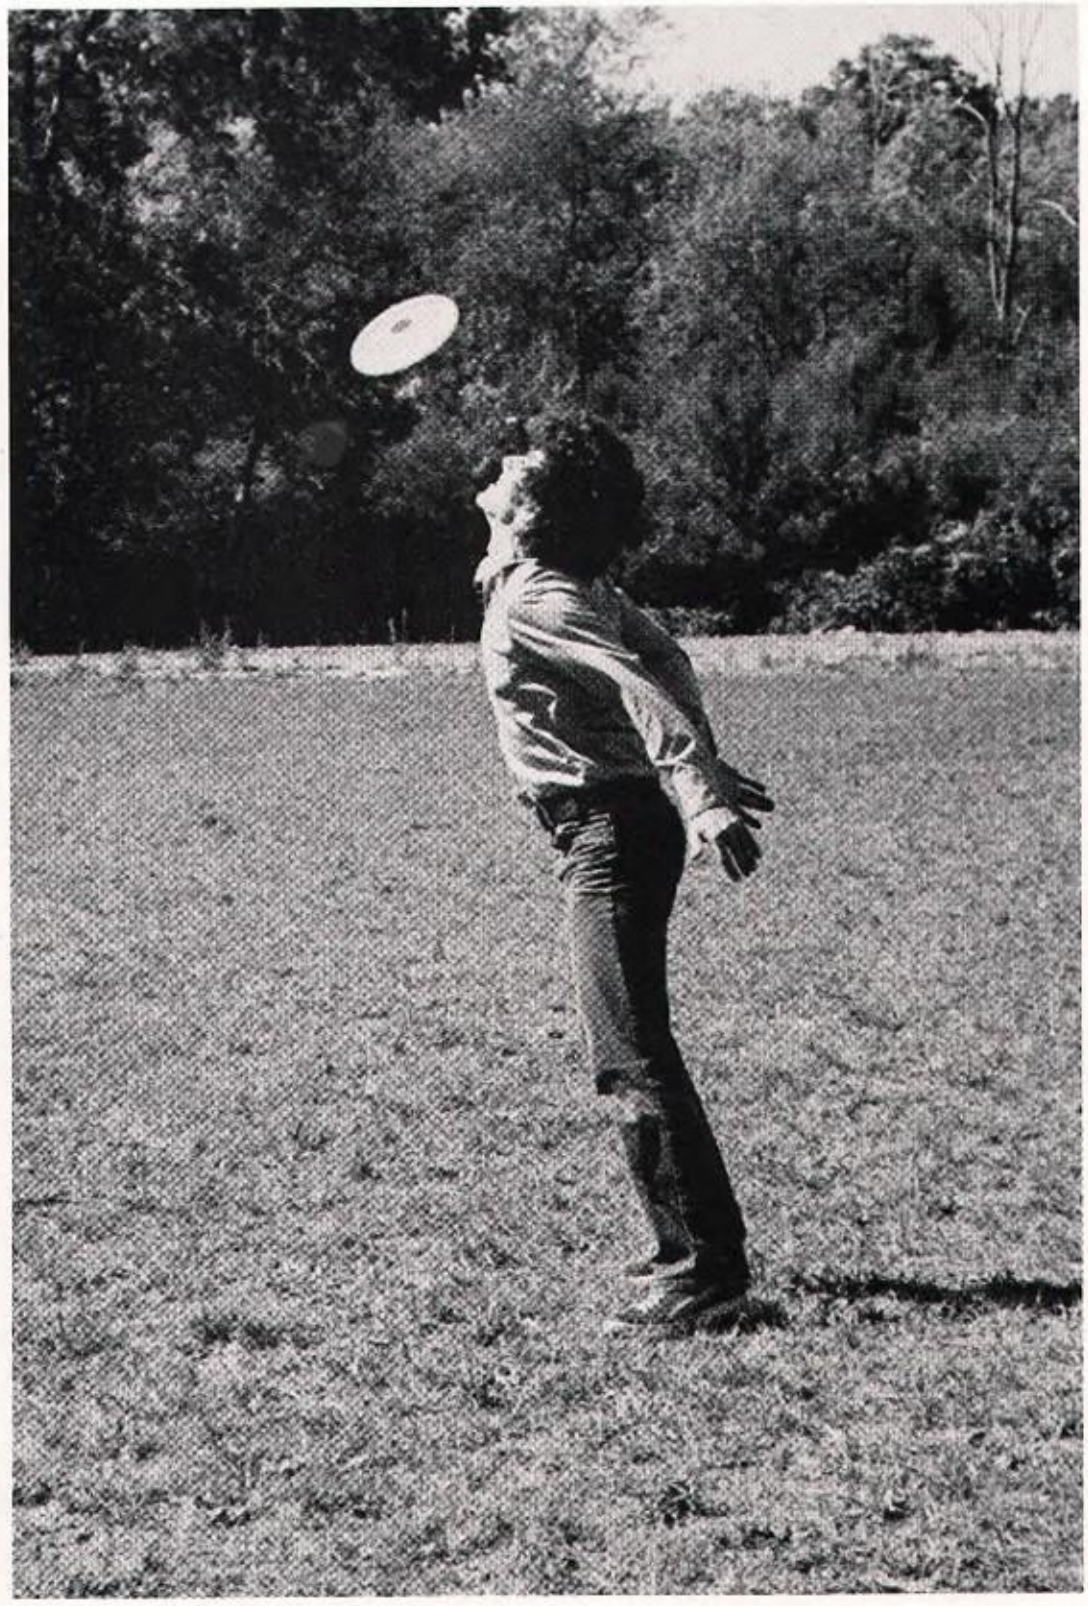
It's all in the state of mind.







Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man
But sooner or later, the man who wins
Is the one WHO THINKS HE CAN.

As the end of my last year at Spackenkill comes near, I have been thinking about the time I have spent here. It doesn't seem as though it could possibly have been four years ago that I entered this school as a freshman. So much has happened in those four years. The games, the shows, the classes, all the laughter and the fights make these years unforgettable.

When we, the members of the Kaleidoscope staff, were given the nearly impossible task of creating a book to help us remember this year, we decided that we wanted more than a diary of names and events. Since each person leaving Spackenkill has a different story to tell, we concentrated on what the individual can find here. In our search, we found that the atmosphere in the school changes from day to day and from place to place. In a book this small, it would be impossible to show all the different moods at the school, so we took the more important moods and presented them. We hope we were successful.

Sincerely yours,

Leslie Wendover

We the staff of the 1976 Kaleidoscope wish to thank:

all those who gave their time to help make Harvest Weekend a success; especially the Dutchess County Sheriff's Department for donating their services.

Mr. De Respinis, Mr. Banks, Mr. Albanese, Mr. Greenberg, Leonard Greenberg, and the personnel at John Lane Studio for their constant help when it was needed.

Mr. Rightmeyer, Dr. Breen, and the members of the board for their support.

And Mr. Hawthorne, our Western Yearbook representative, for his patience.

MY WAY

And now the end is near, and so I face the final curtain,
My friend I'll say it clear, I'll state my case, of which I'm certain.
I've lived a life that's full, I traveled each and every highway,
And more, much more than this, I did it My Way.

Regrets, I've had a few, but then again, too few to mention,
I did what I had to do, and saw it thru without exemption.
I planned each chartered course, each careful step along the byway,
And more, much more than this, I did it My Way.

Yes, there were times, I'm sure you knew,
when I bit off more than I could chew,
But thru it all, when there was doubt,
I ate it up, and spit it out.
I faced it all and I stood tall,
and did it My Way.

I've loved, I've laughed and cried, I've had my fill, my share of losing,
And now, as tears subside, I find it all so amusing.
To think I did all that, and may I say, "Not in a shy way."
Oh, no, oh no not me, I did it My Way.

For what is a man, what has he got,
if not himself, then he has not to say the things he truly feels,
And not the words of one who kneels.
The record shows I took the blows,
and did it My Way.

There was a time, ~~not~~ many many years ago, that we were best friends, remember? But then there was a time we didn't really go around together, and to this day I don't really know what happened. I think it was some who thought he out grew me. And now, here we are, really good friends again, which makes me very happy. We've been through a lot together and there are somethings I'll never forget, both good and bad. like when you had braces and normally what we did you always seemed to cut ~~your~~ your mouth up. Even though it was my fist or elbow that did it, I never meant to hit you and that's the truth.

May God's blessing keep you always
May your wishes all come true
May you always do for others
And let others do for you
May you build a ladder to the stars
Climb on every rung
And may you stay forever young
May you stay forever young
May you grow up to be righteous
May you grow up to be true
May you always know the truth
And see the light surrounding you
May you always be courageous
Stand upright and be strong
And may you stay forever young
May you stay forever young
May your hands always be busy
May your feet always be swift
May you have a strong foundation
When the winds of changes shift
May your heart always be joyful
May your song always be sung
And may you stay forever young
May you stay forever young

Spackenkill High School has given us the opportunity to learn and to grow for the past four years. We have all changed and hopefully benefitted from our experiences here. Although our school is young and lacks many of the facilities present in other high schools, it has provided us with many unique opportunities. Now that we are leaving, we can fully realize how much we have been offered here and how much we have contributed.

Participation in athletics, music, student government, and drama, to mention only a few activities, has contributed significantly to our total high school experience. The activities of our class have proven to be especially rewarding. Working together as a group has allowed us time to achieve a common goal. Although we have combatted apathy at times, the majority of our ideas have been met with enthusiasm and support.

I wish to thank Elise, Lee, Teri, Rhona, Corinne, and Julie for all their help and support. Without their initiative talents the class would never have accomplished a thing. As a result of their hard work and devotion, we have been able to finance our prom, plan our graduation, and organize many successful class activities. I also wish to thank those seniors who worked with the officers of the prom committee, the graduation committee, and the numerous other class activities.

Reflecting upon my role as class president, I feel I have tried to help make the class operate and work up to its fullest potential. Through class conferences and open officer meetings, I have tried to involve as many seniors as possible in the leadership of the class. It has been my goal to act on ideas suggested by the class and to introduce these ideas to the class for their approval. Although the presidency has been a difficult job, it has always been rewarding.

I would like to thank John Chambers, Jim McMahon, and Maria Walsh for their guidance, insight and devotion to our class. Their suggestions have been helpful throughout the year. They allowed us the freedom to make our own decisions and encouraged us in all our endeavors. In addition, their help in planning and organizing the prom and graduation was invaluable. We could not have selected three more dedicated advisors.

The assistance we received from Dr. Breen, Mr. Rightmyer, and many of the other teachers contributed to the success of our senior activities. The administration has given us the freedom and cooperation which we have needed in planning and developing our activities. Although we have had our disagreements, the administration has always respected our opinions. Their cooperation in planning graduation has been especially helpful.

Our senior year marks the end of high school. The influence that the past years has had on our lives is profound. The experiences we have had and the friendships we have made, will never be forgotten.

Finally, I would like to wish the greatest of happiness and success to all the members of the class of . . .

SPIRIT

Have ya got that spirit?
Yea man!
Got the spartan spirit?
Yea, man!

Go green, go white,
Go team, let's fight!

Are we gonna win, say yeah! yeah!
Are we gonna lose, say no! no!
What are we gonna do?
Say fight, Spartans, fight! fight!
Say fight, Spartans, tonight!

We've got the power to win:
If we fight, with all our might!
And Spartans got the power to stop:
The other team, with pep and steam!
And we've got the power to wipe:
Out the rest, 'cause we're the best!

Altogether in this conflict,
Spartans all are we,
Fighting for SHS and victory.

FACULTY

A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops.

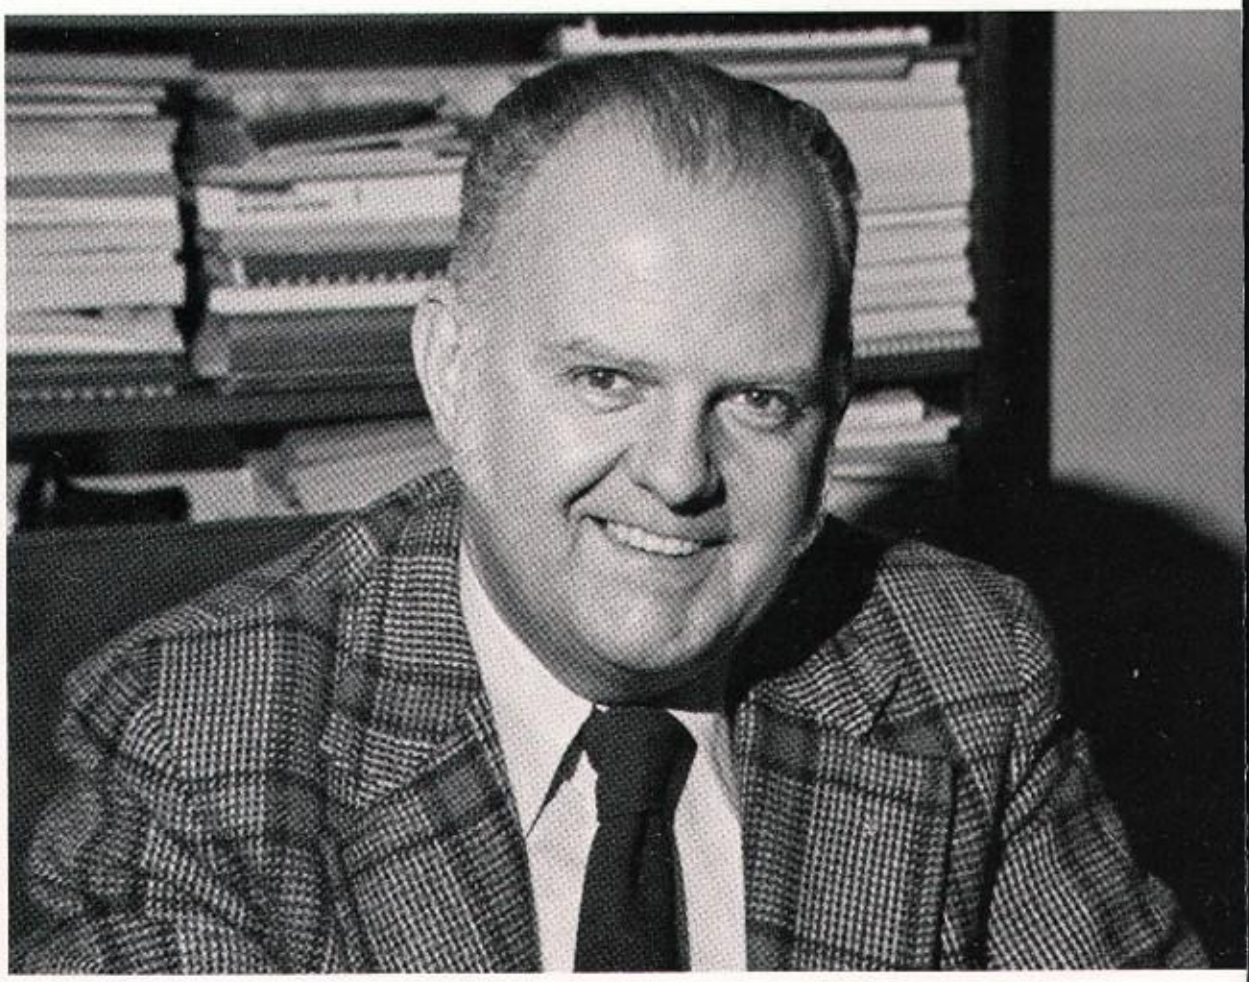
— Chaucer, Canterbury Tales, Prologue

ADMINISTRATION



Dr. Breen — Principal

1976 is notable as the Bicentennial Year. Much has been said and written about this memorable event. The first two centuries of American democracy have been filled with events worthy of note.

Great progress has been made toward the attainment of the ideals so eloquently expressed by the founding fathers. As the nation has matured, goals have been sharpened and refined. During this bicentennial year we should reflect on the progress that has been made.

It is equally appropriate that we reflect on progress yet to be made. America has come a long way. But this is not a time for complacency. Neither is it a time for the cynicism that has been adopted by many as a substitute for inadequacy or unwillingness.

There is great hope! Hope lies in the hands of the youth of America — and not in a generalized "youth". It lies specifically in your hands, you, the graduates of the class of 1976 and those young people following you!

Look to the ideals of America! Ask yourselves how we have fallen short. Search your mind and conscience for solutions. Make the commitments and sacrifices necessary to attain that commitment. Examine our history, not to blame previous generations for errors of omission or commission but rather to see what has occurred with a view — and a vow — to avoid the mistakes of the past.

The future is in your hands. We, your teachers, have done all we can to see that they are capable hands.

Don't disappoint us!

. . . a man whom students were privileged to have as a teacher.

. . . a man whom all teachers were privileged to have as a fellow faculty member.

. . . a man who knew his subject inside and outside, backward and forward.

. . . a man who was totally dedicated to teaching his subject.

. . . . a man who is well-loved and admired by all who know him.

. . . a man who was a true exemplification of a teacher.

We shall surely miss Mr. Carver here at Spackenkill High School, but we will always remember him for his very fine contribution to education. Our warmest congratulations are sincerely extended to him for a fine career and we wish him much happiness in the future. We thank you so very much Mr. Carver.

Mr. President Sir,
A Truely superb
job. You were the backbone of many great events. Monte Carlo
Night, the basketball team and hockey game.
You a fun guy to be around and as a favor To you
I will gladly take any of the leftover funds in the senior treasury just make out another check.
Catch
you in summer
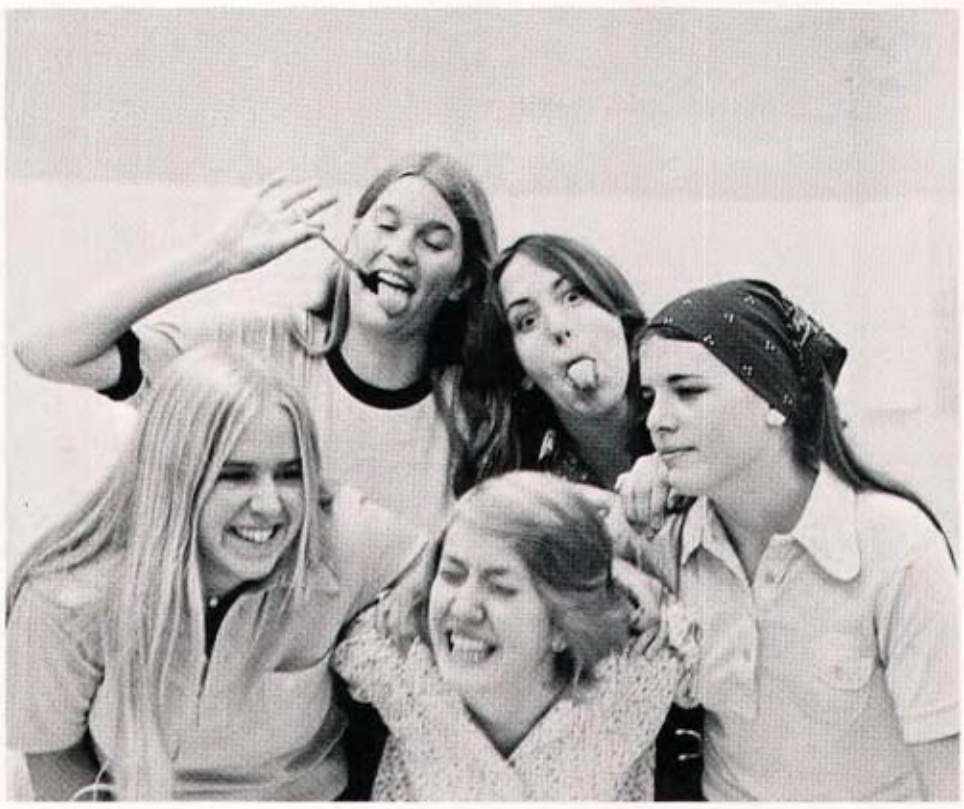
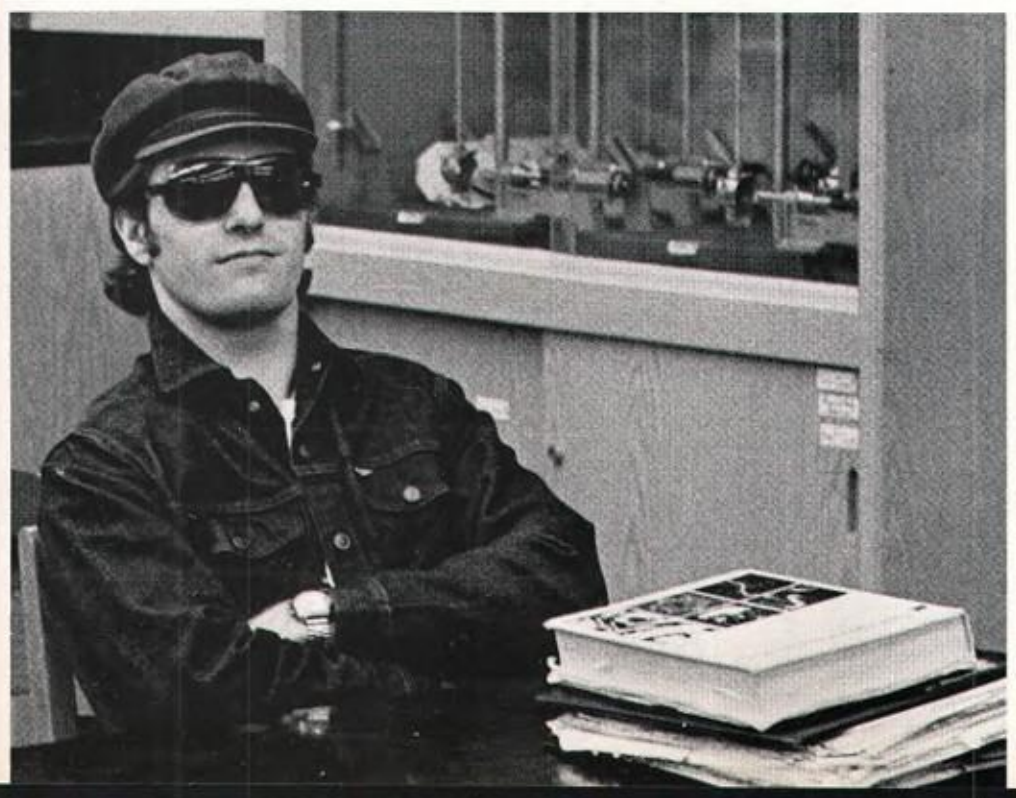
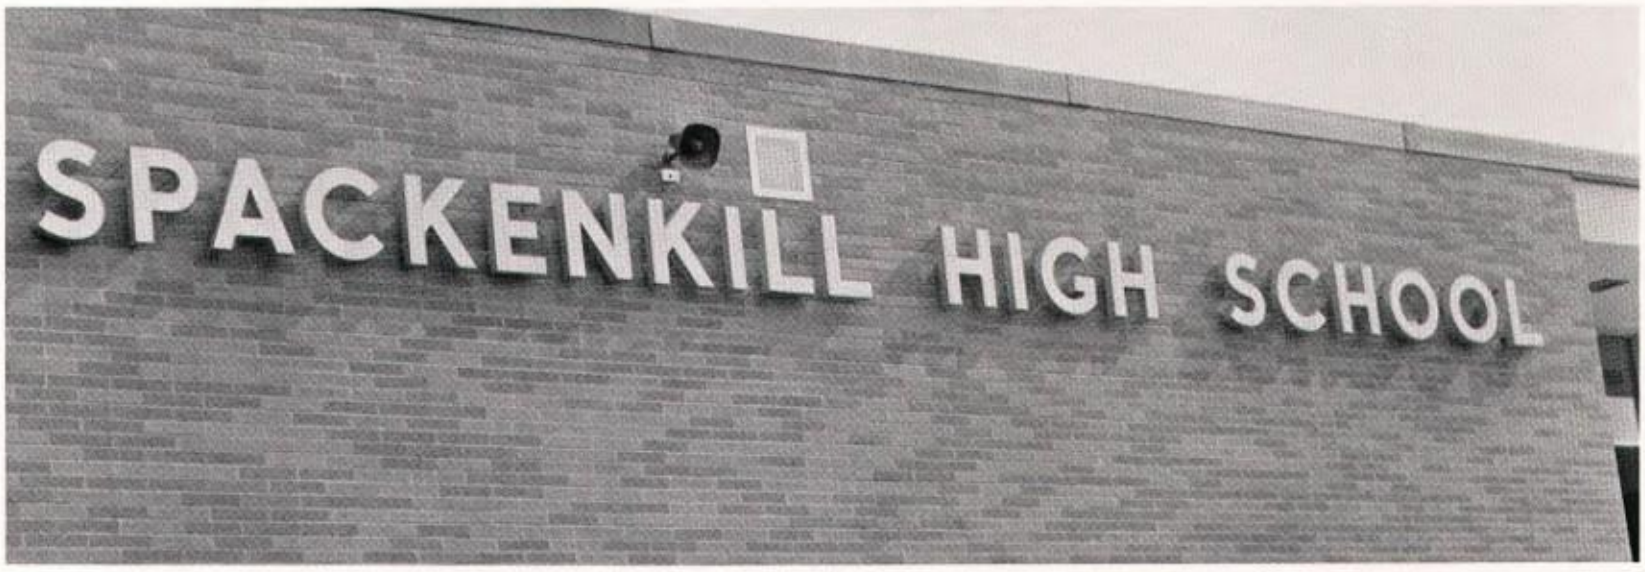
Doug

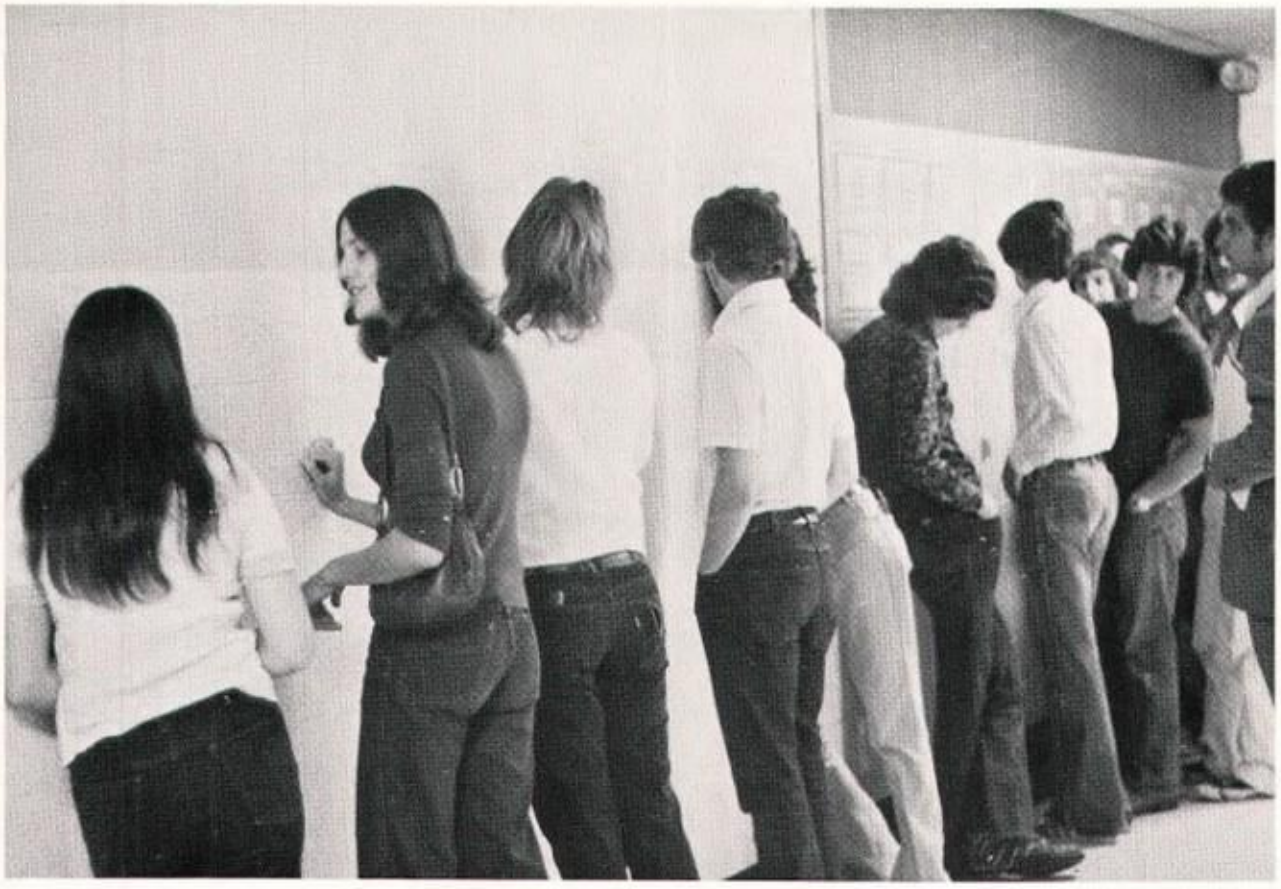




Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .



A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.



Long ago,
It must be . . .
I have a photograph

Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

Life,

so they say,

is but a game and they let it slip away.

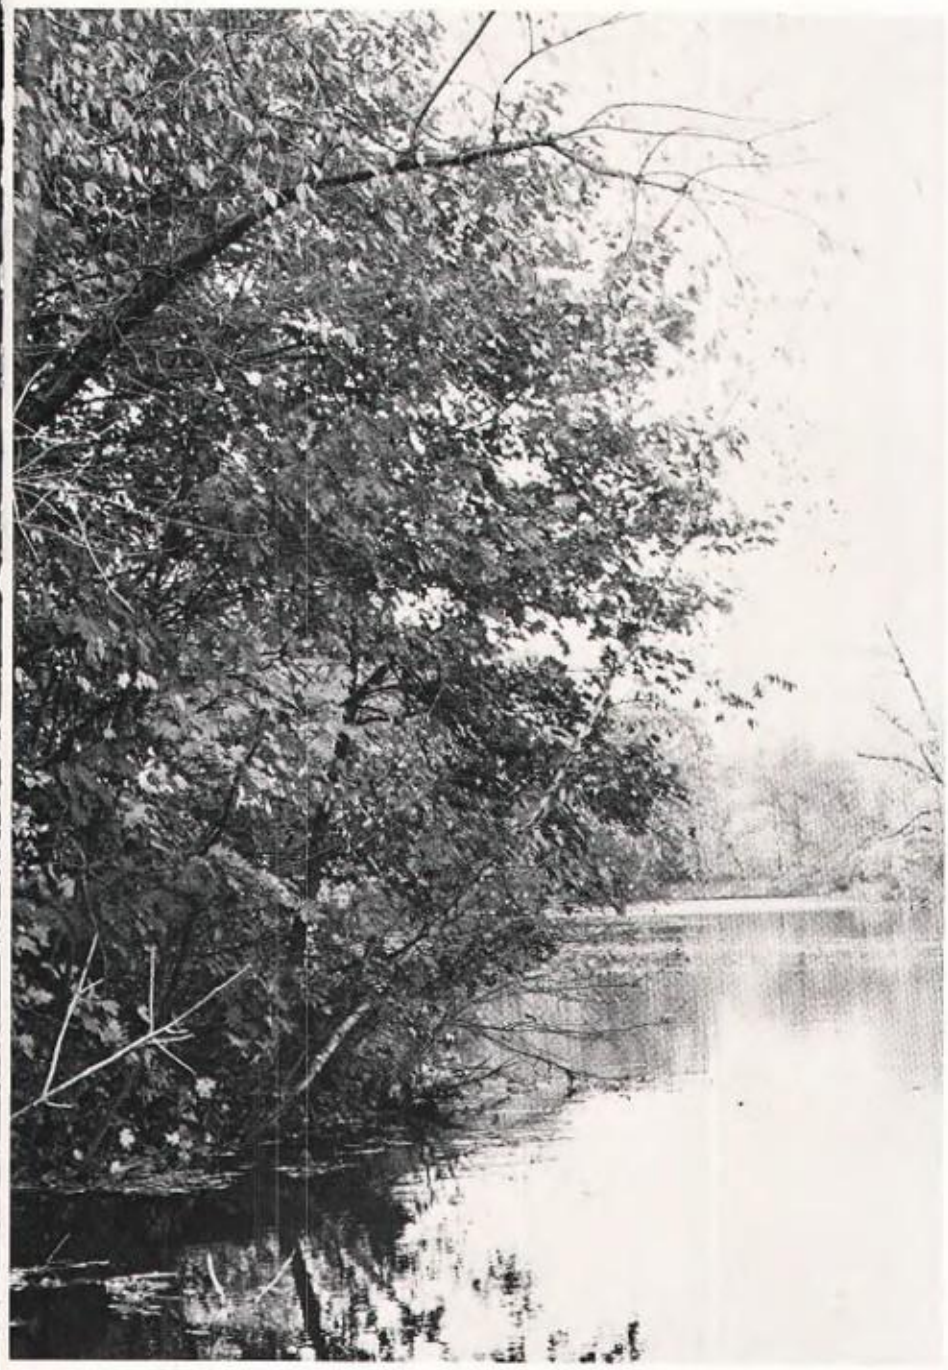
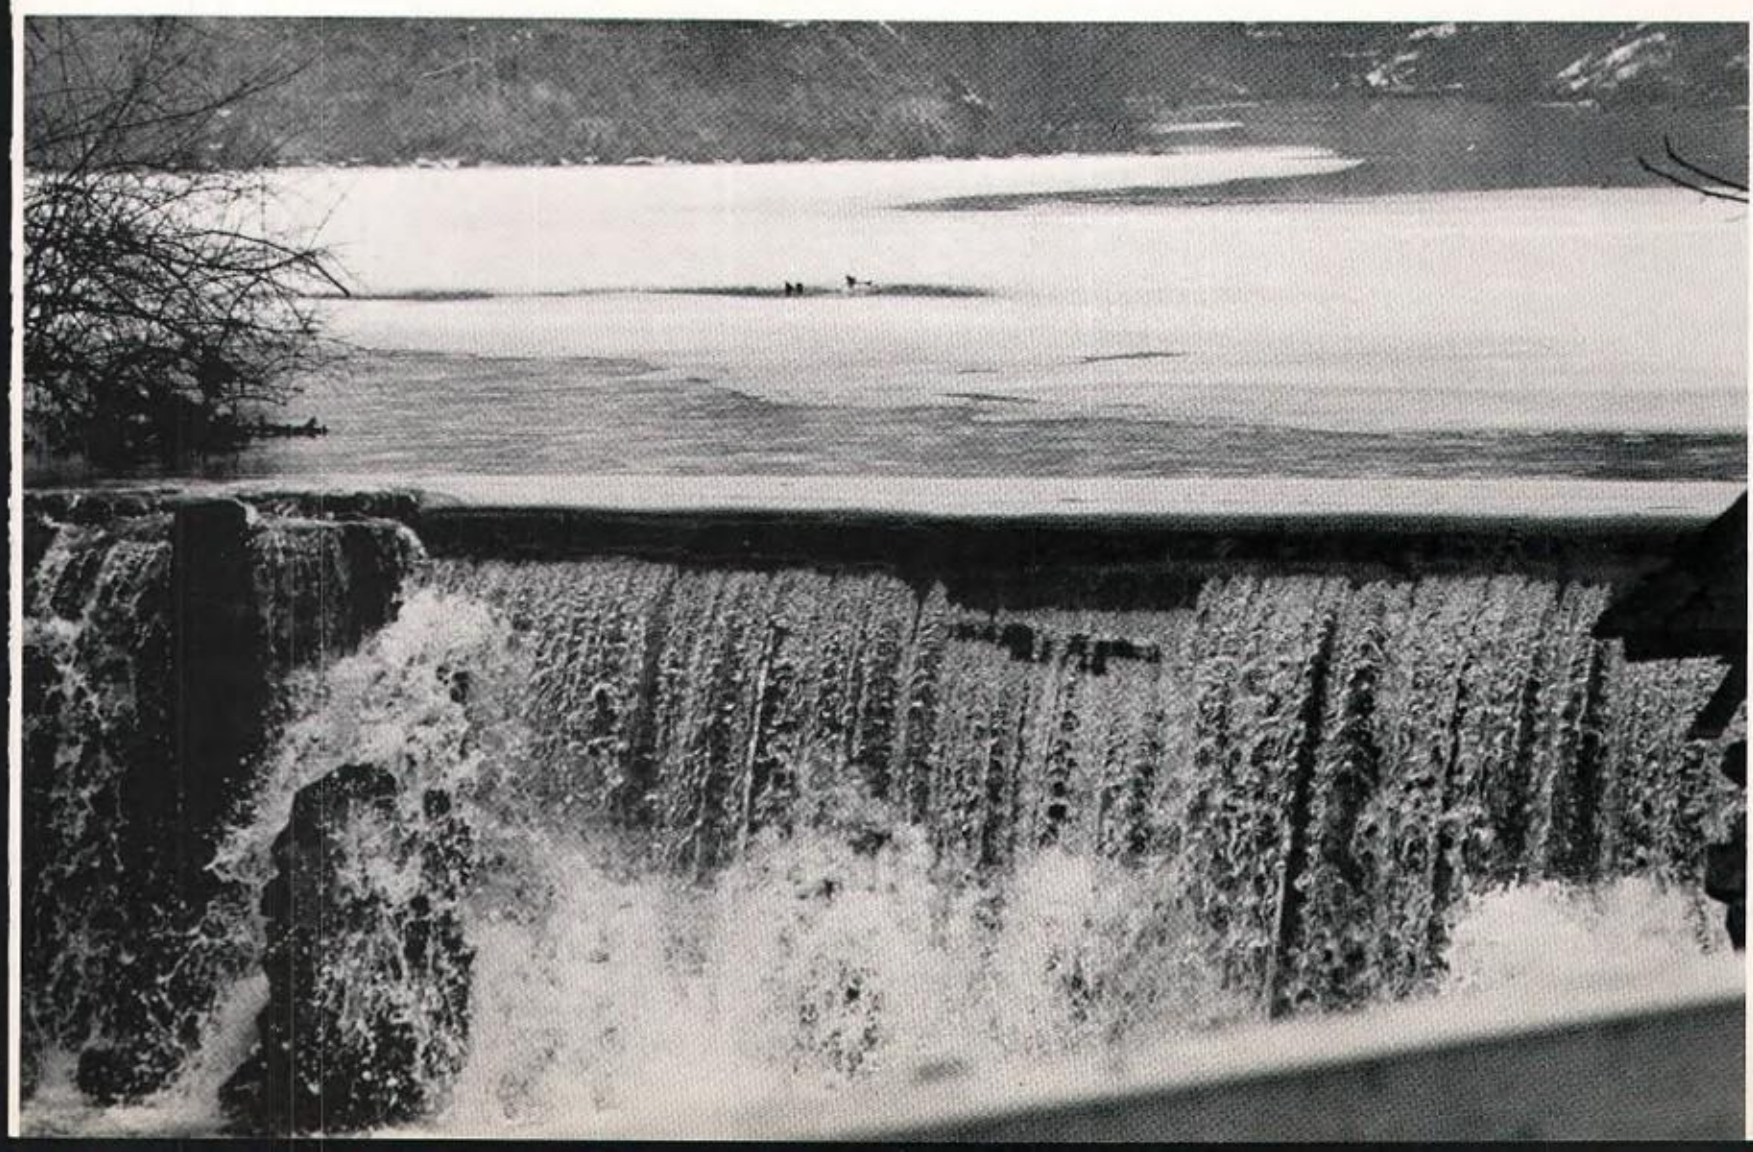
Love,



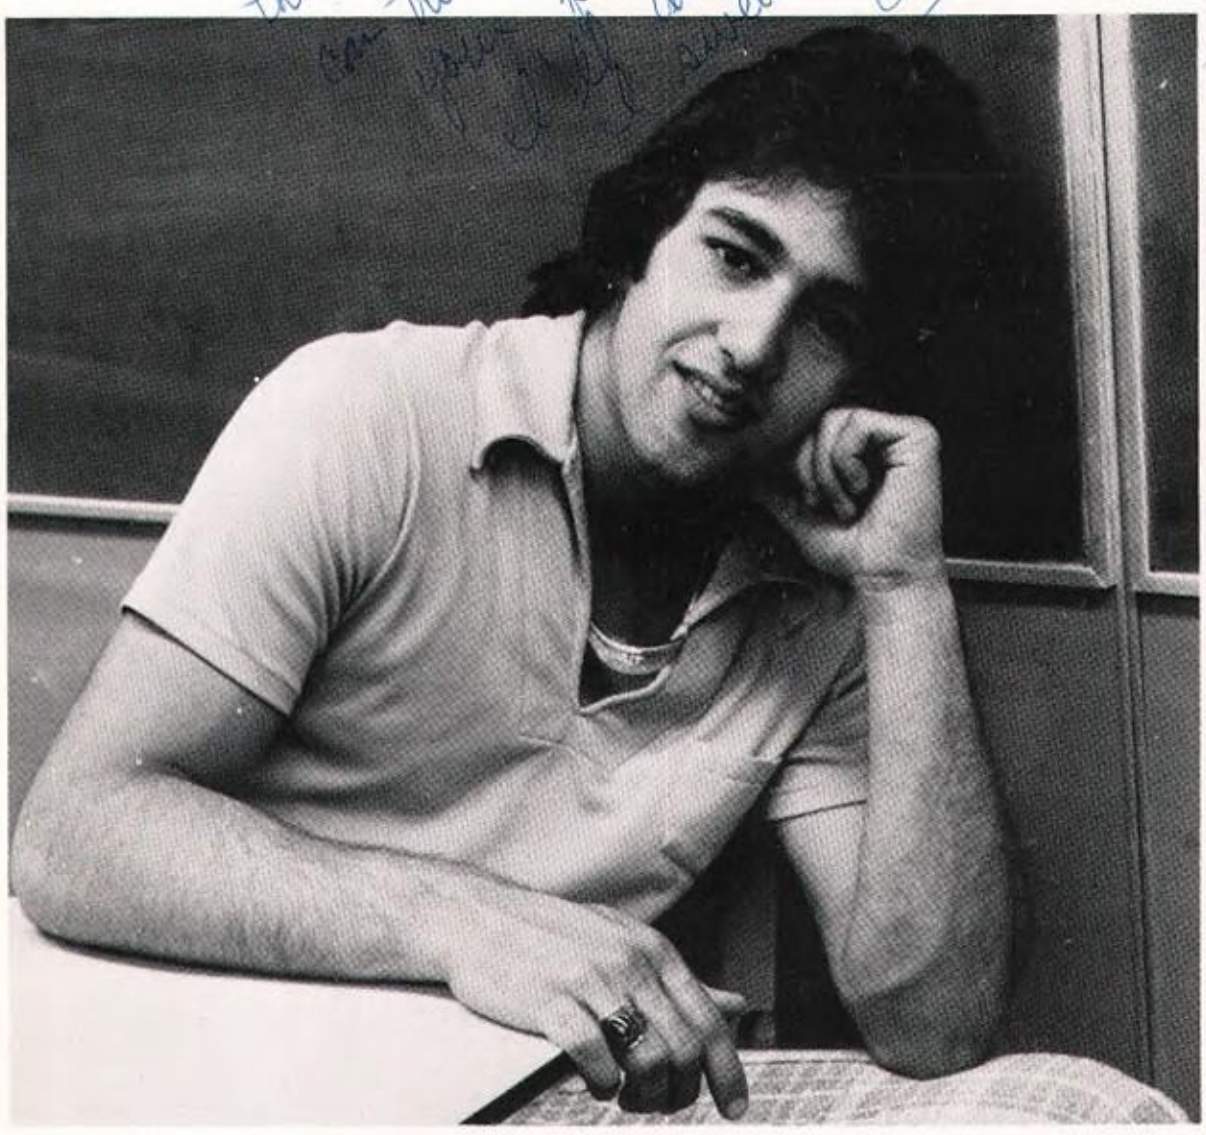
like the Autumn sun,

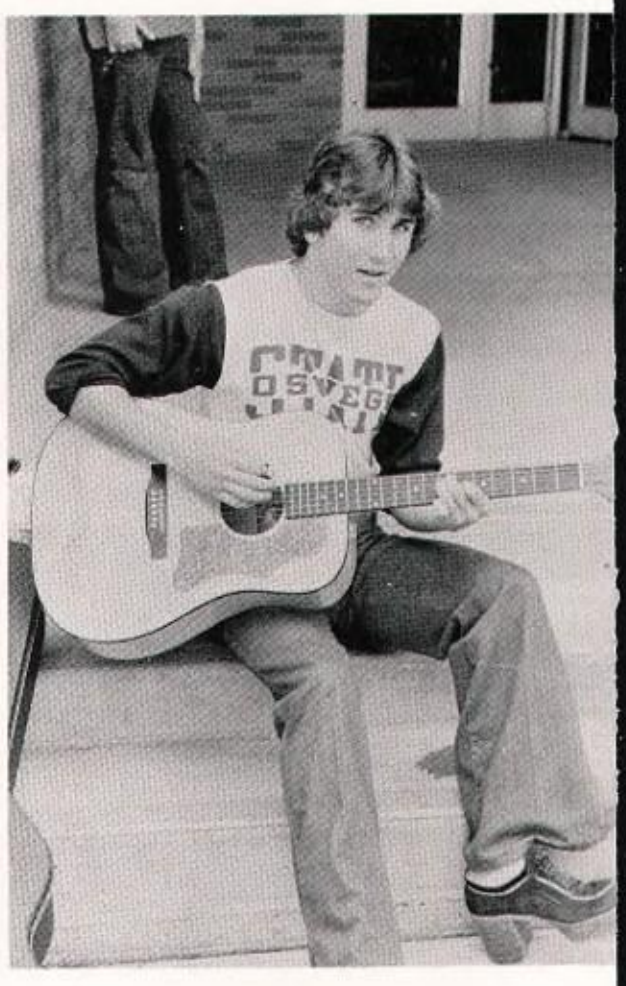
Should be dying but it's only just begun.
Like the twilight in the road up ahead.
They don't see just where we're goin!
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go.
And take us up
always up.



Brad,
I got to know you a little better this year and I truly say that friendship is one always cherish. Good luck!!
A good friend,
Mark

Dreams,



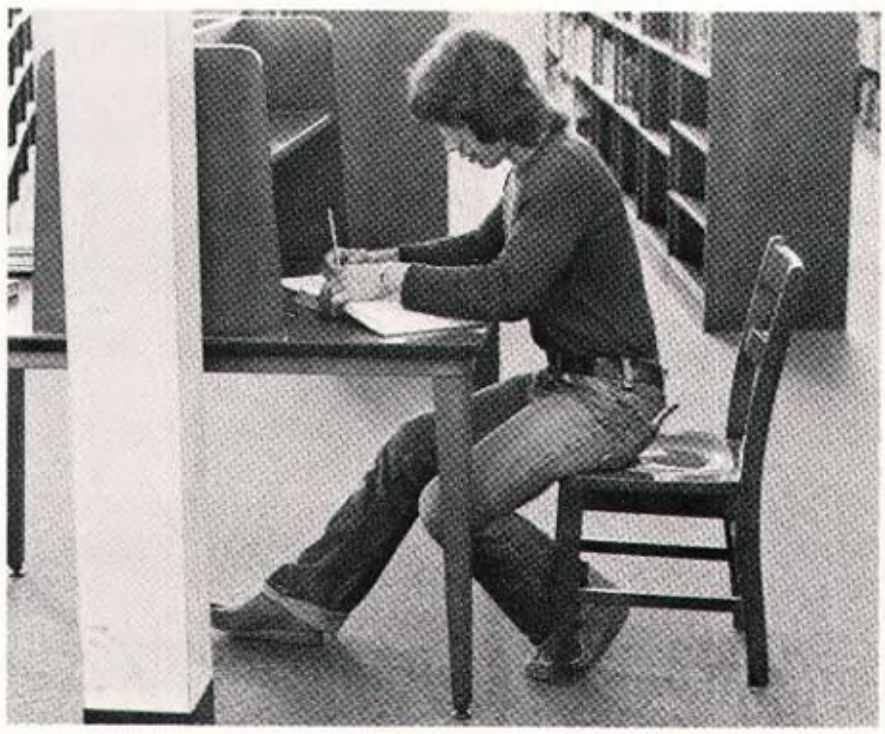


so they say,

are for fools and
they let them drift away.

Peace

like the silent dove,



Should be flying but it's only just begun.
Like Columbus in the olden days.
We must gather all our courage.
Sail our ships out on the open seas.
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go.
And take us up
always up.

In the solitude of our minds
We can look to the future
. . . for . . .
"We know what we are,
but not
what we may be."
